UNITED STATES LARGEST BUT ONE

To-day 130,000,000 People Speak
 The English Language

The United States is by far the largest of all the civilized nations except Russia, which has about 130,000,000 inhabitants. The German empire has 66,000,000. Austria Hungary 47,000,- 000, Japan 47,000,000, France 38,- 000,000, Italy 34,000,000 and Spain 18,000,000. China has 350,000,000, but she does not count in a calculation of this sort. Owing to the rapid growth of the United States, the English language is now spoken by more persons than use any other civilized tongue.

Charles V said he spoke German to his horse, French to men, Italian to his lady friends and Spanish to God.
 In his days, three and a half centuries ago Spain was a land on which the sun never set, England was only a small spot on the map and the English language held only a minor place in the civilized tongues.

Today 130,000,000 speak English, 100,000,000 speak Russian (for not all the people of the empire talk the native tongue), 75,000,000 use German, 70,000,000 employ Spanish including the inhabitants of the Latin American countries, and 40,000,000 speak French.

Moreover the lead for English is rapidly lengthening. Nearly two-thirds of all the people who speak the English language are in the United States—
