THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

There is some talk now, and there will be more when congress meets, about reducing or abolishing the tariff charges now made at our ports of entry on goods imported from the Philippine Islands to the U S
The treaty with Spain whereby we acquired the ownership of these islands has a clause where in the United States agrees that if it makes any reduction on the tariff on goods from the Philippine Islands prior to 1909 our tariff on imports from Spain must be reduced in the same ratio.

As every voter in Oregon, through his representative in the U S Congress has a voice in, and a responsibility for the laws made by our government for the government of these islands it is proper that they should seek information about the people, products and extent of the land we have a share in governing, and before we consent to, or instruct our congressmen to vote upon measures effecting those people and our trade there, with we should know of their condition. To in a small way assist our readers in forming rational conclusions the following from official records are reproduced:

Spain imported into the U S in 1903 goods valued at $8,787,- 621 on which custom house duties aggregated $2,414,316 The same year our imports from the Philippines amounted to $11,372,584 the tariff on which was $2,997,813. From the above it would appear that by abolishing the tariff on imports from the Philippine Islands followed by that from Spain the U S Treasury would lose annually $5,412,129, should our imports from these countries continue as in 1903.

The report of the Philippine Commission in 1903 gives the area of the land surfaces of the Philippine Islands at 115,026 square miles, or 20,466 square miles more than Oregon.

The total population in 1903 was given at 7,600,000 or about fourteen times more people than Oregon has.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excoriating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tallamore,

MEAT CHEAP

But not Cheap Meat

Having purchased the Bock & Thomas shops and also the Bull Market, we are in position, with the three shops, to furnish our patrons with choice meats at a less price than if we had only one shop. It is not our intention to raise the price of meats, but it is our intention to reduce the price, and thereby hope to increase our trade.
A trial order will convince you of the assertion.
