Club Members Tried

This morning District Attorney G. W. Phelps and Attorney J. P. Winters left for Freewater to appear in the trials of several parties for violations of the local option law.

Five or six members of the Freewater "Social club" have been complained against for having sold liquor, evidently much after the manner of the "club" at Corvallis. Among those implicated at Freewater is George Ireland, formerly a saloon keeper of that place, and who retained Mr. Winters for the defense by phoning to him this morning.—E. O.

Must Pay For Range

On Wednesday, Nov 15, at Walla, Howard K. O'Brien, forest ranger in charge of the Walla and Okechimus reserves will meet the sheepmen of the valley for the purpose of allotting the range in the above reserves.

As we understand the situation, the government will lease the privileges to stockmen at a stipulated price per head. The average price per head for sheep will perhaps be about six cents per head for the season.

The arrangement for leasing the grazing privileges is looked upon by most stockmen as an imposition as it compels them to pay for feed, which in former years they secured for nothing.

In this valley the range has been divided between the sheepmen and cattlemen and there never has been any trouble over the government range. Of course time will tell whether leasing the privileges of range is or is not a benefit to the stockmen of this section. One thing we do know is that it will give employment to a few deputy rangers, and will take in the neighborhood of $12,000 or $15,000 from the sheepmen alone.—Joseph Herald.

There were 1131 collisions and 1535 derailments, of which 163 collisions and 168 derailments effected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines and road way by these accidents amounted to $2,410,617.

Geer at Arlington

Ex Governor Geer was in Arlington a few days last week. He is looking fine and is surely a good specimen of Oregon manhood. He expressed a desire to take part in the coming state election, and would most likely be a candidate for senator if that officer will be selected by the primaries the same as governor and other officers. However, he was undecided what part he would take in the coming political contest in the state.

A reception and dinner was given in honor of ex Governor Geer at the home of Mr and Mrs S. F. M. Briggs on Thursday evening.

Thanking our customers for their past patronage and appreciation of our milk and hoping that they will continue with us. We are ever yours,
