It is beginning to dawn upon the people of this county that the forest reserves

The Wallows Democrat and Lostine Ledger have consolidated and will be published from Lostine under the name of the Ledger-Democrat.

The Promoter, a new weekly publication has just appeared in Pendleton under the editorship of H. C. Willis

Tomorrow the elections in various states take place. The public seem to be more interested in the municipal contests

Until the O. R. & N. company builds a closed sewer from the shops to the river or to a point where the sewerage can be discharged

Our attention has been called to a transient picture frame man who has been working the town.

Current tradition credits the ancients with many "lost arts". It is still common to hear people say that means unknown to us must have been employed ancients. Many arts that are supposed to be lost are simply abandoned because there is no modern need of cultivating them.

Telephone

Don't wade through the rain. Telephone. We call for prescriptions and deliver all drug store goods.
