CITY FATHERS MEET At The Lindsey Home

All of the councilmen were present last night with the exception of S. A. Gardiner.

The petition of J. K. Fitzgerald and others asking for a sidewalk on portion of Fir street, was read and referred to the street committee.

A liquor license was granted to C. C. Rockwell for the State saloon on Depot street.

A resolution to improve North Fir street was adopted. Mayor Slater returned ordinance No. 317 with his disapproval and when referred back to the council, the veto was sustained.

The usual claims against the city were paid and work for the present on developing the springs up Mill canyon was suspended.

The water committee had samples of Morgan lake water for the inspection of the council and public, and will today send samples to the state board of health for analysis.
