

TO BUY THEIR PICTURE FRAMES FROM A TRAVELING AGENT, who in turn buys them from us at a low figure and then retails them out at from 100 to 150 per cent more than the original cost when purchased from us. Our frames are cheap in price and dear in quality. Just so with our pictures. For instance we are offering a line of travelers samples of genuine water colors for 75 cents, the same as are being sold in Portland for $1.50.

Oliographs and sheet pictures from 1c to $1.50. The only pyrographic outfits in town and more coming. We have 225 patterns of mouldings for you to select from and ovals in all sizes and all prices.

Don't forget our line of carpets, lace curtains, portiers, furniture, etc.

RIGHTS OF WOMEN

"While Europe's eye is fixed on mighty things.

The fate of empires and fall of kings: Quacks of state must each produce his plan.

And even children, hush the rights of man:
One sacred right, just let me mention.
The rights of women merit some attention."

—Rosa Luxemburg

It has been a long time since the great Scotch bard wrote the above, and all these years, about 220, the women have patiently waited for the attention due their rights by the men. Growing somewhat anxious and thinking that a little urging on their part will hasten the day when the chivalry and sense of justice of the men of Oregon will induce them to recognize the rights of women to a voice in making the laws they and their children have to obey, and to carry out which they pay taxes on their property, at the next June election they will ask the men of Oregon to give them the right to vote.

To present their claim to be treated as equals to the men of Oregon the women who met in a national convention in Portland on last Wednesday planned an active campaign in Oregon next spring and made arrangements to have the state thoroughly canvassed.

From the Oregon Journal's account of the meeting the following is taken:

"The women decided to organize the state fully for the campaign by which they hope to win equal suffrage. To this and the national organization will send some of its most conspicuous speakers to Oregon. Miss Gregg, Miss Clay and Miss Lavghlin already are here. They will be joined by Miss Ida Porter Boyer of Pennsylvania, who will conduct a press bureau; Mrs Clara B. Colby, editor of the Woman's Tribune; Mrs Julia Woodworth of Oklahoma, Miss Harriet May Mills of New York and, finally, Rev. Anna Shaw, who will arrive shortly after the close of the national covention in Washington, D. C., next February. A state central committee is being selected to carry on the campaign."

In 1900 there were 131,261 white males entitled to vote at general elections in Oregon and 560 negroes, but nary white or black woman.

It has been suggested that the citizens purchase the exhibit hall from its present owner and make it a town institution.
We believe that this suggestion is a good one, provided that the hall can be secured at a proper figure. We believe that the city would derive a greater amount of benefit from the exhibit if it were under the direction of the La Grande Commercial Club than under the present conditions. We do not mean by this to cast any reflection upon the present owner, but we are of the opinion that such an enterprise can best be maintained and the best results obtained by a system whereby the general public can and will assist. We feel certain that if the La Grande Commercial Club will make an attempt to secure control of this exhibit hall the citizens of this city will come to its aid in the way of finance, and the farmers and fruit growers can be depended upon to bring in their very best products.

The fine November weather is highly satisfactory to every one concerned. It is especially acceptable to the beet growers as there is yet a portion of the crop unharvested. In every branch of life the citizens are preparing for winter and the leading question is whether the winter will be an open one or not. An open winter in this section means whether the thermometer will fall below zero or not, and it generally keeps above

The Exact Thing Required For Constipation

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for the children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," says R. S. Webster & Co., Udora, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Newlin Drug Co.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death. "As a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at Newlin's Drug store; price 50c.
