

La Grande Evening Observer

VOLUME V

LA GRANDE, UNION COUNTY, OREGON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1905.

NUMBER 11

RUSSIA STILL IN REVOLT

(Scrpps News Association) Warsaw, Nov. 13.—Despite the proclamation of martial law throughout by the government in consideration of the demand for autonomy, the revolt continues and today the railroads are being closely guarded. Desultory firing continues.

CITY QUIET.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The city is reasonably quiet today. The police dispersed a crowd of roughs at Nevsky Prospect who started to attack the "intellectuals." The fashionable part of Moscow is deserted. An attack on the students is feared.

Suit Against Railroads

(Scrpps News Association) Milwaukee, Nov. 13.—In the federal court this morning the government filed suits against nine railroads and one brewery in the attempt to ascertain whether or not the railroads can lawfully pay indirect rebates through private car lines. It is the opinion of the government that it is the more device to secure a reduction over the other shippers.

Alfonso in Vienna

(Scrpps News Association) Vienna, Nov. 13.—King Alfonso arrived here today from Potsdam. The emperor and high officials met him at the station and drove to the palace through lines of troops along the decorated streets.

Grain Markets.

(Scrpps News Association) Chicago, Nov. 13.—Wheat opened at 85½; closed, 85½; corn opened 44½; closed, 44½; oats opened 29½; closed, 29½.

Law Frauds

(Scrpps News Association) Washington, D. C. Nov. 13.—A demurrer was filed today in the district supreme court to the indictment against John A. Benson, of California, the millionaire, who is charged with bribery in connection with land fraud cases and in conspiracy with Frederick H. Hyde, Henry P. Diamond, J. H. Schneider, jointly indicted for defrauding the government in California and Oregon. The demurrer states that several counts in the indictment are bad in substance.

Returns With Prisoner

(Scrpps News Association) Honolulu, Nov. 13.—United States Marshal Hendry returned from Maui on the steamer Like Like having in custody G. L. Brokaw, who is under indictment of the federal grand jury in the Washington state land frauds. The prisoner was taken to the Oahu prison after a preliminary hearing. It is expected that he will be returned to Spokane. Brokaw gave himself up to the sheriff at Maui.

Bishop Dead

(Scrpps News Association) Chicago, Nov. 13.—Stephen Morrill, a Methodist bishop of this city and a prominent divine, died at Keyport N. J., of heart failure. He was apparently in vigorous health when he left here despite his advanced years. He had been bishop 39 years and had been a resident of this city for 34 years.

All But Governor

(Scrpps News Association) Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 13.—The state democratic chairman says that there is no doubt but what all of the minor candidates on the Republican ticket from governor down, are elected by safe pluralities.

Nathan Released

(Scrpps News Association) Boston, Nov. 13.—Morris Nathan was released today and has been freed of all legal censur in connection with the murder of Susanne Gaary.

To Examine Magnates

(Scrpps News Association) New York, Nov. 13.—The insurance investigation resumed this morning. It is believed that Hyde, Harriman, Tarbell and others of like importance will be examined this week. John R. Hageman, president of the Metropolitan was recalled this morning. He showed the statements of the financial transactions of the brokerage firms. The figures showed that large rebates were allowed on interest in the personal accounts.

Seeing The Sights

(Scrpps News Association) New York, Nov. 13.—Prince Louis, lunched at the Chamber of Commerce at noon with his officers and men and went to Coney Island this afternoon. He will go to the horse show tonight. The tars of both the English and American fleets went to Coney and partook of the royal feast of 8000 bottles of beer.

Illegal Voters

(Scrpps News Association) New York, Nov. 13.—The grand jury returned eight indictments for illegal voting. Six of these were arrested on election day. It is understood that warrants are out for others. It is reported that one has confessed implicating one "higher up."

Liner Floated

(Scrpps News Association) New York, Nov. 13.—The liner Graf Waldersee, which grounded Saturday off Brooklyn after starting for Hamburg, was floated this morning.

Federation Meets

(Scrpps News Association) Pittsburg, Nov. 13.—The American Federation of Labor met today in convention and was formally organized.

Shaft Collapses

(Scrpps News Association) Johannesburg, Nov. 13.—The vertical shaft in the Drie Fontein mine collapsed today. One white man and 67 natives were killed.

$30,000,000

(Scrpps News Association) Stockholm, Nov. 13.—Seventeen Jews refugees from Russia, arrived here today with $30,000,000 in cash.

Forger Successful

A day or two ago Mr. E. Reiland received a notification from his banker to the effect that he had overdrawn his account $46. By an investigation upon the return of his checks he found that three of them were not his but had been signed by a former employe and the employe had fled. Two of the checks were for $11 each and the third for $10. Two had been received by the Golden Rule Company and the other by the Oxford bar. As the checks were cashed almost a month ago, the forger has probably made good his escape. His name is not made public as the officers believe there is yet a chance to apprehend him.

Settled At Last

The question of taxation of the railroad, bad in Umatilla county which has been in the courts for the past three years has at last been settled on a compromise. Assessor Strain held out firmly for a valuation of $12,000 per mile and the compromise was on a basis of $10,000 and the company is to pay the accrued interest on the deferred payment.

Confiscation Justified

Washington, Nov. 13.—The assistant attorney general in an opinion today holds that the recent confiscation in the New York postoffice on 270,000 postal cards cartooning William Randolph Hearst was justified.

Mutineers to Hang

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 11.—Henry Scott, the head of the mutineers from the schooner Harry A. Berwind, was convicted in the federal court today and sentenced to be hanged with his shipmates Adams and Sawyer on January 26 in this city.

Large Turkey

Wm. Anson, who resides a few miles east of this city, has a turkey gobbler that certainly will be sought after for Thanksgiving. It tipped the scales Saturday at 52 pounds.

JEROME GETS BUSY

(Scrpps News Association) New York, Nov. 13.—Jerome's assistants, Smirgrod and Perkins, this morning instituted proceedings against John Doe in the Sixth, Fourteenth and Twenty-ninth assembly districts in the election fraud cases. The proceedings are said to be the result of new evidence obtained by the Superintendent of Elections Morgan's men who took several witnesses to the district attorney's office this morning. Great secrecy is being maintained. The grand jury resumed its inquiry this morning and many witnesses were examined.

Peculiar Accident

(Scrpps News Association) Albuquerque, Nov. 13.—A peculiar accident occurred to a party of San Domingo Indians near the "Enchanted Mesa" of Acorna. They had been hunting and upon returning at night, staked their arms in soldier fashion and went to sleep. During the night a gust of wind blew down the guns discharging the loaded ones into the sleeping Indians. One was shot through the kidneys and he died instantly, one had a left arm blown off, another received a charge in his right leg which will have to be amputated and the fourth is injured so badly that he is expected to die.

Confessed

(Scrpps News Association) New York, Nov. 13.—Harry A. Leonard, an office boy who stole $35,000 worth of securities by forging a check, today pleaded guilty to forgery in the second degree and was sentenced to an intermediate sentence at the reformatory.

Embalmed With Oil

(Scrpps News Association) Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 13.—The police believe that Dr. Oliver Haugh, who is accused of the murder of his parents and brother, embalmed the bodies in oil before igniting them. It is believed that he killed them with cyanide.

Soldiers Mutiny

(Scrpps News Association) Helingsfors, Nov. 13.—The garrison at the fortress Sveaborg mutinied, the Russian soldiers demanding better treatment, a free choice of books, and furloughs for soldiers having served time. The demands were partially granted but a conflict continues.

M'CALL AGAIN A WITNESS

(Scrpps News Association) New York, Nov. 13.—John S. McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance Company was recalled to the witness stand this morning and was asked the address of Andrew Hamilton. He said he had heard that Hamilton was either in London or Paris. McCall promised to cable Hamilton to come home, or if he is unable to come, to cable an accounting of the seventy thousand dollars the amount given him with other quarter of a million of dollars which still remains unaccounted for.

KEPT PERSONAL PROFIT
Hegeman also testified this afternoon regarding the profit of $64,601.42 made by the syndicate. He said that $16,000 had been turned in to the treasury as the Metropolitan's share of the profits of the syndicate's operation in which the company had participated. The rest of the $64,601.42 was kept by him as a personal profit and he did not feel any impropriety in retaining the same.

Almost Unanimous

(Scrpps News Association) Christiansa, Nov. 13.—Returns to date now are fifteen thousand in favor of inviting Charles, of Denmark, to become king of Norway and only 1000 against.

Refuses Relief

(Scrpps News Association) Washington, Nov. 13.—Shaw authorized the statement today that he will not go to the relief of the money market until convinced that the business interests are likely to suffer. Should any business concern be denied deserved credit at reasonable rates, the secretary says he wants to know the facts.

Collision

(Scrpps News Association) San Francisco, Nov. 13.—As a result of a collision of a gasoline schooner, Nonpariel and the light house tender, Madrona, off the Pacific wharf at 2:30 this morning a deck hand named John Joer was drowned and Catherine Murphy, of the Nonpariel was seriously injured. The schooner was badly damaged.

Demurs Sustained

(Scrpps News Association) Milwaukee Nov. 13.—Judge Quarles of the federal court this morning sustained the demurs to two indictments against Gail Bigelows. Leaving ten more charges of complicity.

Milwaukee, Nov. 13.—Gustav Pabat, president of the brewery denies all of the charges made, and says the whole is based on malicious lies, and that he was once an officer of the Milwaukee Transit Refrigerator company but who is not interested. He declared that he had no illegal dealings with the road. Judge Seamon ordered an answer to the complaint to be made within twenty days.

Searching for Negro

(Scrpps News Association) Nov. 13.—Posses are this morning searching for a negro, who last night shot and killed Mrs. H. Stedman, wife of the Rock Island agent at Edinger, while he and his confederates were robbing the station.

Terrible Struggle

(Scrpps News Association) Des Moines, Nov. 13.—After fighting all night with his wife, who tried to prevent him from committing suicide, Clarence Reeves, aged 34, took carbolic acid and died from the effects.

TEETH SAVED HIS LIFE

(Scrpps News Association) Butte Mont. Nov. 13.—Billy Semper, a gambler was shot by "Dutch Swede" another gambler in the Turf rooms at Anaconda this morning. The bullet entered the jaw, deflected by a gold dental plate. Semper spit it out and lay on the table feigning death until his assailant left. The attending physician says that the bullet would have entered the brain if it had not struck the plate. Semper is not seriously injured.

A Peculiar Law

(Scrpps News Association) Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—The supreme court today upheld a peculiar law which permits any resident of a state to recover money lost at gambling regardless of by whom lost. The particular case is one in which a woman brought suit to recover lost money and received as judgment a lien upon the building in which the gambling was permitted. She won her case in the state court and the supreme court this morning declared the law valid.

Must Have Boxes

The Postal Department has decided to withdraw the rural delivery service from patrons who do not provide regulation mail boxes. Circulars are to be sent to all those throughout the country who are not now provided with boxes, notifying them that they will be given sixty days in which to secure them, and in case of failure to do so the delivery service will be discontinued. It is stated that any one of 20 different kinds will answer to the description of "regulation" boxes, and that prices range from 50 cents to $5. The department will furnish a list of them on application. It is said the order is in the interest of facilitating the delivery of mail and safeguarding the service.

Shoe Talk

Every Point of great Importance To all Who Must Buy Shoes

We handle the justly famous Peters' Shoe Co.'s Shoes because we find in their lines more real shoe quality for the money—that the best shoe authorities agree is shown by the fact that Peter's Shoes were granted Highest awards, for style, quality, and workmanship, at the St. Louis Fair—OUR STOCK ALWAYS COMPLETE. TRY A PAIR.

Special lot Men's $1.75 to $2.25 Shoes, this week 98c

Cheaper to Prevent Colds Than to Pay the Doctor

Nine-tenths of the colds come from damp feet. Don't keep on wearing thin soles until you catch cold and have the doctor and druggist to pay—you'll have to buy the shoes anyway. Buy now and lay the thin soled ones away 'til spring.

Our Diamond Special

IS BUILT WITH SOLES THAT DEFY THE WEATHER

Men's $3.50 Women's $3.00

$2.25 Boys' shoes $1.69 $3.25 ladies' shoe $2.50

A special school shoe in box calf or vici kid, special at $1.69 In fine vici kid with patent leather and self tip special $2.50

Plymouth Waverly Rubber for Men The pair 90c Extra quality, heavy rolled edge, extra heel stay.

Reserved Seats for Popular Course

The course of entertainments to be given in Central Church this fall and winter is fitly named The Popular Course. The interest shown by the people of the town is the best evidence that such a series will be appreciated. Four attractions are positively booked and the other will be given, possibly in November. Those listed so far are: J. Whitcomb Brougher—"Home Sweet Home" or How to be happy though married. Dec. 12. Stephen A. Lowell—"Law and Lawyers, Then and Now" Jan. 5. Elsworth Pluinstead—Impersonator in Medley Program, Feb. 15. Harry T. Butterworth—Company—Basso-Soprano and Whistling soloist Violinist and Artistic Reader, March 15. On Thursday Nov 16 I will be at Selders Gandy store next door to Post Office and all who have engaged season tickets for the course of entertainments will please call, get tickets and reserve seats. As so many are getting, will you please bring exact change? The plat will be ready at 8 a. m. and seats on sale until 5 p. m. We wish to be fair to all, but the first to come have first choice. No seats marked until 8 a. m. (O. H. King)

GOOD READING AND PLENTY OF IT

Never before has there been a chance to obtain so much good reading in town as our large book department is now offering. The new store which we have taken in gives us ample room to carry a splendid stock and we are showing all kinds of good reading. In stocking up this large department we took special pains to select the best and most popular fiction, as well as to increase our stock of standard works. In fact, the works of the world's best writers are on our shelves and as many of the books come in different bindings you can suit yourself as to price. In looking over our counters you will also find all of the best periodicals which include fashion, fiction and scientific magazines. Come in and look over our books often. You'll find what you want here and at prices which will suit.

Blank Book and Office Supplies

We carry the largest and most complete stock of blank books and office supplies in the city. When you want goods of that kind let us show you our stock and quote you prices.

NEWLIN DRUG COMPANY
La Grande Oregon