Saved By Dynamite
Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe, for sale by Newlin Drug Co. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

LOCAL ITEMS

Company L will give its regular bi-weekly dance this evening.
Leon B. Stoddard of Union is in the city on business.

Mrs. Dr. W. F. Whiting of Elgin, is in the city today visiting friends.

J. S. Kallan and W. Pugh, well known residents of Summerville, are in the city today.

Fred Shoemaker, a Pendleton insurance man, came over this morning on business.

J. M. Spence and sister of Pendleton came over last evening and are in the city today.

David Husband of the state of Washington will preach in Central Church at 7:30 this evening. All invited.

Miss Maymie Carr left this morning for her home in Boise instead of Saturday as reported previously.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wigglesworth left this morning for Salt Lake City where they will spend the winter.

P. A. Worthington, the O. R. & N. right of way agent, came up from Portland last evening and left this morning for Elgin.

J. S. Kees, a well known hardware clerk of Pendleton, and W. M. Slusher, a sheepman of the same place, spent Sunday in this city.

Mr. A. W. Hogue, a former resident of Iowa, has arrived in this city and will open up a stationery and book store in the room with W. K. Davis, the piano dealer.

The brick cottage of Mrs. G. M. Richey in the southeastern part of the city is being completed and when finished will be one of the handsomest residences in the city.

Mrs. David Kinsey came down from Baker City Saturday evening, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Mrs. Huntington, thinking it was to take place Sunday. For years they were very close friends in the old town.

Sheriff Pennington escorted Jack Gahart to the penitentiary Saturday night where he will serve two years, as a result of his pernicious habit of getting drunk and appropriating other people's property.

SOCIETY

Q. A. M.

The Q. A. M. Club gave another dancing party in Armory Hall Saturday evening.

DAMEN-KRANZ

Miss Margaret Kirk was hostess to the members of the Damen-Kranz at the opening meeting of the year, '06-'08, Saturday evening. A pleasant time was the result of the nicely planned affair and there was much merry-making when all assisted in preparing the chafing dish supper.

STRAW RIDE

At the suggestion of Miss Jessie Grimmit, the people of Island enjoyed a straw ride Saturday evening. About 30 of the young people were loaded into wagons and after visiting May Park and La Grande they drove to the river and built a huge bonfire. Here hot coffee and sandwiches were served. The guest report a merry time as they always do when Island City folks attempt an entertainment of any kind.

The Neighborhood Club meets tomorrow afternoon.

Peanuts in Malheur

Mr. and Mrs. M. Page of Watson Oregon, made us a pleasant call last Saturday and left us a few peanuts of enormous size which he raised on his ranch near Watson. They are the largest we have ever seen and he raised 30 lbs. from a pint planted. This is only a suggestion of what can be done in East Oregon soil.

The peanuts are on exhibition in the Gazette window.—Malheur Gazette.

A Sparta Pioneer

William Arble, who was among the first to placer mine at Sparta and who for the past thirty year, has rickled, panned and sluiced in the gulches of that pioneer mining camp, is in the city under the doctor's care hoping for an improvement in his health. The old pioneer thinks he is getting better and his many friends hope that he will regain his former condition of health.—Baker City Democrat.

For Senator

It is stated from sources that seem to speak with more or less authority that T. T. Geer has announced his candidacy for the United States senate and to further his interests has purchased an interest in the Pendleton Tribune. Mr. Geer has been before the public for many years and has won his success largely through the press and it is quite possible that there is something in the report.

I have just received my full stock of China ware in hand Painted, Decorated and White Haviland. Also a complete stock of Cut Glass and Silverware, all new patterns. See our Souvenir China. Do not forget about our heating stoves and ranges.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY.

Hardware and Crockery.

Our real estate men should push Grande Ronde as a winter resort if the weather continues much longer. It certainly cannot be excelled.

Mrs. Hadley, wife of the late L. O. T. M., and Mrs. E. Walters went to Imbler Saturday where they reviewed the Hive at that place in the evening. They report everything in first class order and had an enjoyable session.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson today notified the saloons in the city that gambling must cease. He stated that complaints had come to him alleging that the city authorities had so far failed to enforce the law, and that he would try his hand at it.

Opportunity

Opportunity is a shy creature and does not wait long for any hesitant soul to make up its mind to follow its leading. "Come with me and I will do the good," says Opportunity, and always adds immediately, "Come now!" There is no opportunity for tomorrow, but only today. Act now in the living present, and the future shall take care of itself.—New York Observer.

May Bore For Water

Dr. C. M. Faulk is the owner of 640 acres of land on the east side of the valley and has under consideration the boring of a well in the hope of striking an artesian flow. If he is successful, the problem of irrigation so far as his lands are concerned, will have been settled.—Baker City Democrat.

Married

At the Hotel Foley Sunday evening Nov. 12, Mr. Guy Fisher and Miss Lula Martin both of Cove, O. H. King officiating, a number of friends witnessed the ceremony.
