Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Galhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe, for sale by Newlin Drug Co. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

SOCIETY

MRS. McCULLY ENTERTAINS.

Prominent among the social events of the week was the whist party given by Mrs. G. McCully, Wednesday afternoon, at her home on N. Street. Tables were arranged for eighteen couples. The first and second prizes were won by Mrs. Mosby and Mrs. Swaney, and the consolation was awarded Mrs. Crawford.

Mrs. McCully was assisted by Mrs. F. E. Moore, Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Van Buren in dispensing of the dainty refreshments, which were partaken of at the card tables.

The afternoon was altogether a charming one, as the Mesdames Causey, F. E. Moore, Swaney, Bartlett, Van Buren, Bohnenkamp, Thomas, Lyle, Byrkit, Palmer, Newlin, Allison, F. Kiddie, A. L. Richardson, Molitor, Gulling, Norris, Aikine, Meyers, Mosby, Laughlin, Bock, Carr, Murphy, Ash, Crawford, Stilwell, Snodgrass, Howell, Buckley, Gardner, Grady, Nibley, Kelly, Jackson, Cavana, and the Misses Bohnenkamp, Stephens, Lyne, Newlin and McCall can confirm.

Show Last Night

There may have been a time when the La Grande audiences demanded a flow of rather indecent language to amuse them at a theatre performance, but that time is past. "The Marriage of Kitty," should result in an early divorce as it was so unsuccessful. The company consisted of only six people and while the play itself was not so bad, the few actors and their language made it almost a failure.

Marriage License

County Clerk J. B. Gilman, last evening issued a marriage license to B. M. Colvin and Louise Stavala, both of Elgin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Prescott received a telegram this morning stating that their son Auldin, died this morning at Boise City, Idaho. The telegram did not state the nature of the disease that caused his death. The young man was twenty four years. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but Mr. and Mrs. Prescott and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Nelson will leave this evening for Boise to attend the funeral.

Notice of Final Settlement

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undersigned administrator of the estate of George Gettle, deceased, has filed her Final Account, as such Administrator, with the County Court of Union county, Oregon, and that the Judge of said court has fixed December 11th, 1924, at 10 o'clock, in the afternoon, of said day, as the time for hearing objections, if any there be, to said report and Final Account.

Dated November 10, 1924.
TERESA GETTLE,
Administratrix of the estate of George Gettle, deceased.
F. B. IVANHOE, Attorney for Estate.

Frank Alderman and family left Wednesday for Wallowa county where they will make their future home.

The High School football team played La Grande last Saturday and was defeated by a score of 16 to 0. Our boys are laboring under difficulties in securing steady players, but they will still press on.

The literary work of the high school is proving a source of benefit and pleasure to all. It is divided into two sections, with Netta Kiddie as president of the first section, and Stella Hunter of the second. The second section gave an interesting program on Friday of last week. The "High School Senate," edited by Fred Huffman was bright and newsy. Special mention might be made of the dialogue by Roy and Ben Gekeler, each doing his part well.

The first section will have their program Nov. 24th.

Club Dance

The Commercial Club will give another of their popular dances tomorrow, Friday evening. Music will be furnished by Thomas' orchestra.
