Charles Major wrote "When Knighttoons. If there is any truth in the saying 'the better the day the better the deed" then this fact may account for the exsellence of the book. But the adage does not apply to the presentation of the dramatization of the story by Roselle Knott and her excellent company. This is more than excellent without its being given on the best day of the week. Mary Tudor is described in the book as "a person of womanly perfection, with skin like velvet, with a voice soft and full, and, except when angry, which, alas! was not infrequent, had a low coaxing note that made it irresistable; an adroit coaxer, knowing har power full well, although she did not always plead, having the Tudor temper and preferring to command when she could." Roselle Knott is the personificacion of that description-a real Mary Tufor. She more than gratifies the wish of Charles Major, the author of the book. expressed some time ago, that he might see his heroing in flesh, for no more perfect impersonation of Mary could be givon than Miss Knott's delineation of the part. CONSTANT SUFFERERS

Most old people are great sufferers in Winter. They IN WINTER Most old people are great sufferers in Winter. They IN WINTER are seldom free from pains or alluents of some description, because they are not as able to withistand the severity of the clanate, with its damp, changing weather, as are their younger, more vigorous companions. Cold weather starts the old aches and pains; they suffer with chilly sensations, cold extremities, poor appetite and digestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and other afflictions peculiar to old age. With advancing years the strength and vitality of the system begin to decline. The heart action is weak and irregular, the blood becomes thin and sluggish in its circulation, and often some old blood taint that has lain dormant in the system for years begins to manifest itself. A wart or pimple becomes a troublesome sore or ulcer, skin diseases break out, or the slight rheumatic pains felt in younger days now cause sleepless nights and hours of agony. There is no reason why old age should not be healthy and free from disease if the blood is kept pure and the system strong, and this can be done with S. S. S. It is a medicine that is especially adapted to old people, because it is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying, healing and building-up properties, and is very mild and gentle in its action. S. S. S. warms and reinvigorates the sluggish blood so that it
