SOCIETY

WHIST CLUB

Mrs. J. H. Aikine was hostess to the Thursday afternoon whist club, which met at her home on Fourth street, and, as are all gatherings at Mrs. Aikine's home, the afternoon was brim full of pleasure for the members so fortunate to be present.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A delightful informal event was the dinner party at the Meyers home, Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers entertained a few friends in honor of their sixth wedding anniversary.

Want Damages

F. E. Graham, of Elgin has presented a claim against Union county, amounting to $290, for the loss of cattle killed by the collapse of the Wallowa bridge. Hector McDonald, who was also driving a herd of cattle across the bridge at the time and suffered a similar loss, has also put in a claim against Wallowa county for damages.

Pacific Coast

Weiser is to have a $30,000 opera house.

Things are warming for the municipal election at Astoria, which occurs on December 13.

Governor Chamberlain has granted a pardon in favor of Harry Milner, of Portland, who is serving a three months sentence for eating his wife.

The dispatches again informs us that the President will soon appoint a federal ship in Oregon.

By Real Estate

Fred S. Stanley and Robert Smith formerly of Perry, yesterday bought the southeast corner at Thirteenth and Marshall streets in Portland from R. E. M. Strickland of Spokane for $15,000. John L. Wilcox made the sale. The property is in the district that undoubtedly will be utilized largely in the future for warehouse purposes.

Mrs. Brown Ill

Mrs. Ben Brown, the well known pioneer of this valley, was taken suddenly sick last evening at her home at Island City, and while she is reported as some better this afternoon, her condition is considered quite serious.

Has A Son

(Scripps News Association)
Denver, Nev. 17.—Bryan's daughter, Mrs. Homer Leavitt, gave birth to a son last night. This is the second child.

LOCAL ITEMS

Rev. D. S. Smith of Elgin spent today on business in our city.

E. B. Long, of Summerville was a caller at our office this afternoon.

Miss Christa DeBorda, of Cove, is visiting Miss Bessie Bloom, of this city.

Frank McKinnis is completing a new residence on his farm north of Summerville.

C. P. Ferrin left for Baker City this morning to take the part of Mordecia in Queen Esther tonight.

Mrs. Wm. Dunn, of Wallace, Idaho, was expected to arrive this morning for a visit with relatives and friends.

George Powell, of Old Town, lost a valuable horse last evening. It died of lung fever.

William and Elmer Hogboom, well known race horse owners of Walla Walla, are in the city today.
