CLOTHES CLEANED

The same old stand but a new management. Take your suit to the same place, and have another man clean and press it the way it should be. Harvey does the clean and pressing and does it right. Another strong feature about his system is that his prices are correct. Remember the place, next door to the commercial club. Ladies gents clothing cleaned, dyed, pressed and repaired.

La Grande Team Wins the Saturday Foot Ball Game

This is the way Alostott made a run for La Grande

"Strawberry shortcake! Blueberry pie! VI II CII TI OII RI YII! Are they in? Well, I guess! La Grande High School! Yes! Yes! Yes!

The poultry editor attended the football game Saturday afternoon, and though he is not accustomed to anything more warlike than a good rooster fight, he was able to stay the game out, though there were times when he was on the point of telephoning for the sheriff or the coroner. When the chicken editor arrived on the grounds the two teams were scattered over the field, but as soon as it was noised about that we were there, a tall sandy looking fellow blew a police whistle and the two teams flocked to the center, turned their feathers the wrong way and stuck their heads down. When a big gamey looking Shanghai cackled a few numbers which some one said were the signals announcing the play, and then something happened. Every one seemed to go wrong at the same time and when the man with the sharp pointed whiskers found out what was taking place, he yelled "time" and waved a bunch of red ribbons, and then all the players stopped and stood up, that is, all that could stand. Two fine looking roosters were spread out on their backs as if suffering from an aggravated attack of the pips, but when the whistle sounded again they were as and won the game for the home team. Score, La Grande, five; Union nothing. Line up of the two teams.

EXCITEMENT PROMISED

The citizens of La Grande who admire football are promised a little the most exciting time of their lives on Thanksgiving day when the Athena Athletic Club meets the La Grande team on the local grounds. The La Grande team as selected so far, shows considerable weight and as many of them have played in teams of more or less consequence, it will be found that it will not be an amateur game.

The following have made application for positions on the team and from them the eleven will be selected: Robertson, Driscoll, Gillilan, Alostott, Laughlin, Gillilan, Williams, Baker, Guttridge, Oliver, Parker, Caylor, Bay, Hopper, Smith, Faulk, Bunker, Cotner and Wilson.

Beginning tonight signal practice will be commenced at the Armory hall and continued every night before the game and a date will be set to play the members of the High School team in a practice game. Harley Laughlin has been elected as coach and captain and his tutelage the team will be set to work.

New Physician

Dr. C. E. Hawke, formerly of Portland has located in this city and expects to make his future home here. He has rented one of the cottages near the court house and has a suite of office rooms in the Sommer block on Adams Avenue. The doctor made the change from Portland on account of his health.

Bacon striking an attitude in the last part of the last half in Saturday's game good as new and all hovered over the big ostrich egg, which seemed to be causing all of the disagreement. They scratched over the lot for about twenty minutes, sometimes Swackhammer's flock would have possession of the egg and then one of "Goose" Alostott's coveys would tuck it under his wing and start home with it on the run, but about the time he would get properly started, someone would get in his way and then there would be a general pileup, and everything would have to be done over again. In one of the free for alls which took place in the first half, Doc Bacon Jr., saw something among the grass roots, but as both hands were fast in someone's hair, he went after it with his nose. That useful member still bears the marks of the attempt. The first half resulted in both sides scoring a goose egg, but as there were more feathers scattered over Union's side of the field, it was generally thought that the La Grande team had the best of the trouble. After a ten minute rest, business was resumed, and things were doing at all points at once. The Union boys made a couple of fancy plays and once kicked the egg over the heads of the La Grande team, but in about three minutes the La Grande boys returned the compliment. From that time, it was just good hard work for both sides, and with the exception of a few stops for the benefit of some player who had received a strong peck over his craw, the pleasures of the day were continued uninterrupted until the La Grande boys pushed the egg through the Union territory, and with a mighty flutter put it over the line
