CLOTHES CLEANED

The same old stand but a new management. Take your suit to the same place, and have another man clean and press it the way it should be. Harvey does the clean- and pressing and does it right. Another strong feature about his system is that his prices are correct. Remember the place, next door to the commercial club. Ladies gents clothing cleaned, dyed, pressed and repaired.

W. E. Harvey.

Baby Incubator

Up at Oro Fino they have an interesting little piece of flesh and bones three weeks old and weighing but 1 3/4 pounds.

People returning from Portland had sung the praises of the baby incubator at the fair, but when the doctor was called three months ago to attend to a 7-month boy, weighing one pound, he had not the time nor the money to send to Portland for an incubator. Accordingly, he wrapped the tiny child in cotton and blankets and placing it in a basket, suspended the basket just below the stove-pipe, at an elbow where the heat reaches it from the stove below, and the pipe above and from the pipe on one side.

Night and day the father keeps the fire going, and several times a day the temperature of the little basket is recorded. Should it be below 100 degrees, more wood and a little more draft bring up the temperature to the required mark.

At first the doctor did not think the child could possibly live. But a nurse was secured, and she taught the little one to eat, day by day it has been gaining. Sunday it was just three weeks old and weighed 1 3/4 pounds. When but a few days old the nurse took a ring from her finger and slipped it on the child's arm. It dropped right to the shoulder, and when the arm was lowered, the ring was so loose it fell off.

Off For Naples

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Carter received a telegram today from their daughter Florence stating that she would sail for Naples the 21st inst. Miss Carter has been studying journalism in New York for the past year. Her friends wish her a pleasant voyage.—Baker City Herald.

Miss Carter is well known in this city having held the position of stenographer at Mayor Slater's office for some time. Her many friends here wish her success.

On Into Wallowa

Ceo. W. Boschke chief engineer for the O. R. & N. company, was in Elgin Wednesday. Mr. Boschke was on his return from Wallowa county, where he was inspecting the proposed route which the O. R. & N. Co. will follow into that valley. It is thought that as soon as Mr. Boschke makes his report that the contract for the construction of the road from the mouth of the Wallowa river to Joseph will be let.

Poor Dissatisfied

(Scripta News Association)
London Nov. 20—Another remarkable demonstration of the unemployed poor, showing their dissatisfaction of the attitude assumed by the government toward the relief made today, thousands of men marched through the streets to Hyde Park where they held a meeting. Violent speeches were made and resolutions were presented declaring "An unending war on the capitalist system." There has been no disorder.

Always Accommodating

You will always find us accommodating. Try us and see if we are not ever ready to oblige, and our prices are right.

A. T. HILL, prescription druggist.

Notice of Settlement

As we have sold the Horseshoe Chop House we will consider it a favor if those in debt to us will please call and settle on or before December 1, 1905. All accounts due the Horseshoe prior to November 6, 1905, are due and payable to us, and we will pay all accounts owed by the firm prior to that date.

L. S. and W. W. POLLOCK.

MEAT CHEAP

But not Cheap Meat

Having purchased the Bock & Thomas shops and also the Bull market, we are in position with the three shops, to furnish our patrons with choice meats at a less price than if we had only one shop. It is not our intention to raise the price on meats, but it is our intention to reduce the price, and thereby hope to increase our trade. A trial order will convince you of the assertion.
