AMUSEMENTS

A NEW PLAY COMING

In "A Jolly American Tramp," E. E. Kidder, the well known playwright who wrote "A Poor Relation" and "Peaceful Valley" for Sol Smith Russell, solves the problem that has vexed the rural communities for years. In it Mr. Kidder attempts to show that with kindness and just appreciation of man, even if in rags, and the consequent respecting of his rights, will impel even the most confirmed "Hobo" to think he is on earth for a purpose. In this play the author promises a new and rather novel motive, that of a rascally husband insuring the life of his wife, then stupefying her with drugs hiding her in the attic of a deserted (and supposed to be haunted) house, substituting another body for hers and collecting the insurance thereon. Through the medium of an ordinary tramp the wronged wife is liberated and restored to rights that have been wrested from her, and the guilty punished. There is said to be a happy blending of pathos and wit in "A Jolly American Tramp." The cast contains the names of such well and favorably known players as Clark Ross who plays "Happy Jack," the tramp; Bertha Farnsworth the dainty little scubrette; Cora Lee Jefferson, the well known comic opera prima donna late of the Castle Square company; Virginia Melville, a clever character Irishwoman, and in fact every part is in the hands of a competent artist, and the play is said to be one of the most successful comedy melodramas on the road this season. It will be the offering, Steward's Opera House, Friday, Dec. 1.

THE GREAT McEWEN COMPANY

The Great McEwen and company of vaudeville performers will begin a six nights' engagement at Steward's Opera House on Monday night, Dec. 4. This company comes highly recommended by the press. The following is an extract from the Portland Oregonian, during the company's engagement at the Marquam Grand in Portland:

"During the past week the city has been wrought up over the series of entertainments given here in the Marquam Grand by Prof. McEwen. The prejudice against the professional hypnotist is fast diminishing, and people are coming to realize not only the importance of hypnotism itself to the human family, but the important part the hypnotist has performed in bringing the public to a correct understanding of the phenomena. One not object to being instructed on scientific subjects, even when out for an evening's amusement, if it is done in the right way, and that is where Mr. McEwen towers head and shoulders above others in his line. He administers the dose of knowledge each evening in such a sugar-coating of fun that the benefits are wrought without the annoy usually felt from lectures alone."

Seats will be on sale at Van Buren's Friday. A special matinee will be given Saturday, Dec. 9. Prices for evening and Matinee, 10, 20 and 50c.

LECTURE COURSE

The first attraction offered by the lecture course for the season will be a lecture December 12 by Rev. Brouger, of the White Temple Portland. His subject will be "How to be Happy though married" this is considered a master piece, and the patrons of the course will undoubtedly be pleased with the first number offered.

CAMERAS

For young folks and for many older folks there is one ideal gift—a camera.

The desire to make pictures is inherent in every human being and for most of us it finds its highest expression in the camera. Not only is picture-taking one of the most interesting of pastimes, it is of great educational value as well. It leads to outdoor living, which makes one of the healthiest diversions possible. With the latest improvements it is possible for a novice to make practically as good pictures as the expert. We will have cameras that embody all these latest features. Don't make the mistake of buying a camera of antiquated pattern—it will not do the work.

The Newlin Drug Co. having secured the agency for the Eastman Kodaks, will have a complete line to show in a few days.

Contest Case

The land office was occupied yesterday by the Dykstra vs Dykstra contest case. The contest was brought against George W. Dykstra by his divorced wife to prevent him from proving up on certain lands in Morrow County. Mrs. Dykstra alleges he owned 320 acres of land at the time of his filing which would prevent him from taking land under the homestead act.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at Newlin's Drug store; price 50c.
