"A Jolly American Tramp." a comed cosses, "Peaceful Valley" and "A Poor opera house on Friday December 1. terne relates the efforts of one of the world's unfortunates, who, while shunned by society yet fulfills the teachings of the good by aiding the oppressed and persecuted. Love, passion, despair, bitterness desire for revenge and the self torments of the soul of the villian who causes all the trouble, will be shown with an intensity and naturalness by the thoroughly mpetent cast that will enact its various roles. Among the most noted of its players are the names of Clark Ross, Berline Farnsworth, William Lee, Vera Wilson, Cora Lee Jefferson, Virginia Mellville. Wm. S. Ely and others.

and vanish like spirits of the air, and then to show how quick and how skillful the human hand may become, he, with his left hand juggles four billard balls showing them to you held between each of his fingers. These he makes appear and will, scarcely moving his hand and keeping his arm all the time extended in plain sight. As a coin and card manipulator he stands without an equal, and this may also be said of him as a hypnotist. In this art he has achieved a worldwide reputation, and only by seeing his work can one get an idea of it. Arizona Flood

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 1-The wires which have been down between here and Clifton Arizona, are open and news is received hat one of the worst floods in the history of the town has just prevailed there. The waters swept down Chase creek, washing out the Colorado railroad between there and Metcalf, and washing away a number of houses in Clifton. The depot yards of the New Mexico & Arizona railwere washed out near Clifton.
