AMUSEMENTS

MONDAY NIGHT

The great McEwen and company of performers.

Starting Monday night, December 4th, with a matinee Saturday, Dec. 9th, the great McEwen Company will open a week's engagement at Steward's Opera House under the management of Mr. H. L. Laavitt. The attraction this year has been greatly revised. Many new features, some of which have never been exhibited in America before, have made the attraction one of the strongest on the road this season. The Great McEwen is assisted by Miss Florence McEwen, Queen of Illusionists. Her illusion entitled "Princess Monamada" has caused many people to puzzle themselves, as to how it is accomplished. In this great act a woman is caused to float through the air without any apparent means of support. This illusion is one that has been imported from the Hindoo of India.

Mindreading magic and hypnotism constitute the Great McEwen's part of the program. His mindreading is of the highest order and must be seen to be appreciated. Hypnotism remains an attractive feature. There is no comedy on the stage today that can produce in two hours as much real laughter and enjoyment as 15 minutes of hypnotic demonstration. Anyone affected by the blues can find instant relief here.

While in this city the Great McEwen will cure, by hypnotizing, many various ailments. This is not attempted in every city on account of the great nervous strain upon him.

A matinee will be given Saturday, Dec. 9. Prices 30, 20, 10c. Evening prices are the same. A different program is rendered each night. Seats are now on sale at Van Buren's.

The Pendleton Tribune has the following to say of McEwen the hypnotist who will open a week's engagement at Steward's opera house next Monday evening.

"The underlying and effective principle in mesmerism, hypnotic, mental and Christian science healing is identical in all—a means by which the sub-conscious mind, the existence of which is recognized by all physiologists, is inspired and directed to control the physical functions and restore them, when impaired, to normal condition, and the permanency of the relief is determined by the degree to which the sub-conscious mind is influenced.

There is no question but that the Great McEwen, who opens an engagement as a hypnotist of the higher order and power and that he can exercise this power to heal the sick. He publicly gives remarkable evidence of this gift, causing stammerers to freely talk without showing a trace of the former impediment. Men, suffering from rheumatic troubles, have been caused to stand erect and throw away crutches and canes. Many other afflictions have been instantly relieved in the presence of large audiences.

Mr. McEwen disclaims that any mystery attaches to his power. It is the same to him as is the gift of poetry to the poet; of music to the musician; and the power of the brush to the painter.

During his engagement in La Grande Prof. McEwen will give public exhibitions of the wonderful power of hypnotism when manifested and applied in the art or science of healing; tests that will convince the most sceptic.

A Busy Place

The OBSERVER man discovered himself at the Grande Ronde Cash Company's place of business this morning and was surprised at the bustle and activity which is in evidence there. The place is full of industry, and the manner of handling business would startle the average easy going man out of his senses. Lewis Brothers, the proprietors, are manufacturing a special brand of steam rolled barley which is as fine as any ever offered in this valley. Their wood business has also taken on proportions which will place them in the lead of all dealers in the Inland Empire. They now have fourteen car loads on the way to their yards, and many times as much now on hand. While the OBSERVER man was endeavoring to keep out of the way, the switch engine puffed up on their special side track with three car loads of coal, and a telephone message from the freight office announced that another car had just arrived. Their large warehouse is full of baled hay, and Mr. Lewis informed us that he had several hundred tons awaiting shipment at North Powder. This firm is in business to do business, and those who desire to trade with them can find their telephone numbers on their display ad which appears regularly in the OBSERVER.

The Exact Thing Required For Constipation

"As a certain purgative and stomach sufferer Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for the children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," says R. S. Webster & Co., Udon, Ontario, Canada. For sale by NEWLIN DRUG CO.

Stockmen Attention

A mass meeting of all stockmen and all sheepmen interested in grazing upon the Wenaha forest reserve will be held at Walla Walla, Washington, December 18, to arrange a division of the range for the grazing season of 1906. CAMERAS

For young folks and for many older folks there is one ideal gift—a camera.

The desire to make pictures is inherent in every human being and for most of us it finds its highest expression in the camera. Not only is picture-taking one of the most interesting of pastimes, it is of great educational value as well. It leads to outdoor living, which makes one of the healthiest diversions possible. With the latest improvements it is possible for a novice to make practically as good pictures as the expert. We will have cameras that embody all these latest features. Don't make the mistake of buying a camera of antiquated pattern—it will not do the work.

The Newlin Drug Co. having secured the agency for the Eastman Kodaks, will have a complete line to show in a few days.

Service

This drug store tries to serve every customer so well that they will not think of going elsewhere for drug store goods.
