SOCIETY

THANKSGIVING OUT OF TOWN

Thanksgiving day was observed by the farmers in the vicinity of Grange Hall, by all assembling there with their well filled baskets. After a hearty shake of the hand, and a social chat for an hour or more, a table the length of the hall was improvised and spread with a dinner which could not help but tickle the palates of all present, as the table was laden with all the good things of the season. Before partaking of the bountiful repast thanks were given for the blessings for the past year, and when the hour arrived to depart to their respective homes, Hon. J. W. McAllister proposed that all join in singing the familiar hymn, "God be with you till we meet again." These pleasant gatherings at this particular season, have been the custom for the three or four years, and are much enjoyed by both old and young.

ARTISAN LODGE.

Prominent among the social events of the week was the big banquet given by the Artisans Friday evening. There were many guests present and praises for the lodge and its excellent banquet were frequent. The tables were made attractive with flowers and prettily shaded candles.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Yesterday was the seventh birthday anniversary of Miss Margaret Ramsey, and the following little friends were invited to join her in the celebration of the day. Dainty refreshments were served and the afternoon was spent playing the games which delight little people. The Tho delight of the day culminated in a grand peanut hunt. In this contest Naomi Kirtley proved the best hunter and was awarded the trophy, a peanut doll.

Lake Storms

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 2.—The Journal today says 149 lives have been sacrificed, more than 70 ships wrecked and a loss of nearly $7,000,000 sustained in the three big storms on the Great Lakes this season. That this is the most disastrous season in the history of shipping on the lakes is beyond question.
