Charles Dana Gibson has ceased to produce those fine drawings for which he was noted, we have a number of his handwork in stock. Rembrandt water colors and Carbon Aristotypes make handsome ornaments. Framing done here that is just as artistic as the pictures themselves.

Watch Oregon Grow!

Watch Grande Ronde Valley Grow!

When Oregon and Grande Ronde valley grows you may rest assured that there will be some activity in La Grande.

How would a four story brick building look on Adams Avenue. The press is muzzled for a few weeks but we can say that it is almost assured.

The thirty saw mills in Union county are hustling for logs. They have their cut put all contracted at profitable prices.

David Eccles has sent out the instructions that he wants Grande Ronde valley to grow more beets next season than ever. The facts are he wants the industry to grow so the La Grande factory will have to be increased to twice its present capacity.

Several northern states, among them New York, Illinois, Iowa and California are using convicts to advantage in preparing road material. Nearly, if not quite all of the Southern states are successful in lowering the cost of road construction in the use of prisoners and state convicts.

The Sandridge is becoming quite noted as a fruit belt and many acres are being planted into orchards.

La Grande could secure a woolen mill that would give employment to one hundred people if we made an effort. There is not a woolen mill on the coast but what is paying handsome dividends.

The Stoddard Lumber company is now arranging to supply an early spring trade in the building line. They are in a position to know that there will be many residences built in this city and vicinity.

Several months ago there were suggestions toward the organization of a local Building and Loan Association. That is too good an idea to let drag. Such associations are homebuilders.

La Grande has worked in perfect harmony for the past year or more and there is every indication that the same conditions will continue for at least another year.

The legislative candidate who does not pledge himself to vote for the people's choice for United States senator might just as well save his money by remaining off the ticket. The day of bosses has ceased in this state.

The state of Nebraska forbids the manufacturing of cigarettes within its border. The other day a youth named Patrick Raymond, aged 18, was seen by a detective in the city of Lincoln to roll a cigarette for his own use. He was arrested and fined $50 and costs. It will be some time before he will make another "coffin-nail" in public.

Colorado produced this year about 5,000,000 Rockyford canteloupes, but it is estimated that four times that number were sold in the markets. Three-fourths therefore were imitations and, though fairly good of their kind, not equal to the original. It seems that only a limited area of the Arkansas valley is adapted to produce the canteloupe at its best, but it is a pity that nothing can escape the imitators and adulterators.

Roosevelt is a terror to political bosses. His latest turn is the dethronement of both Platt and Odell in New York.

This is the era of quitters: Depew, McCall, McCurdy, Perkins, Platt, Odell and the list might be extended.

The dairy interests are being rapidly developed in this valley. The increasing cream shipments to the La Grande creamery is an evidence of this.

Contractor George Kraeger expects to sell more brick in 1906 than any year during the past five. La Grande for years has steadily increased, but Mr. Kraeger says that every indication tends toward unusual activity the coming year.
