WANTS TO BE STATE PRINTER

William J. Clark, editor of the Gervais "Star" and a candidate for the nomination of state printer on the Republican ticket, through the direct primary nominating convention which will be held April 25, and participated in by all parties. Mr. Clark is the only son of Samuel A. Clark, the veteran Oregon journalist and writer, and who was also the first county clerk of Baker county and well remembered throughout this section.

We are pleased to note that the press generally west of La Grande speak in praise of the good work Mr. Clark is doing in furthering his candidacy and making friends.

The young man is not only a native son but has a complete knowledge of the printing business, and is well known throughout the Willamette valley as a versatile and ready writer, having been connected with the Salem Statesman, Willamette Farmer, and is now publishing the Gervais Star.

There is considerable rustle in Mr. Clark and as he says: "Under the direct primary law it is necessary for the candidate to mingle with the mass of voters, as a personal acquaintance will in a large measure influence the voter."

Mr. Clark informs that he is surprised at the general knowledge the public possess regarding the rights invested in them through the direct primary, and can see no reason why the great mass of intelligent voters cannot choose as competent officials by the direct primary as is manifested through conventions.

Mr. Clark is a well known fraternal and society man, having membership in the Masonic order, Sons of the American Revolution and is at present Grand Foreman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

KEPT UP THEIR SPIRITS

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 9.—A pail of oysters and a case of whiskey found in the express car kept the passengers on a railroad train in North Dakota alive and in spirits while the train was stalled for four days by snowdrifts. There were sixteen passengers and the train crew, and the oysters were fed in the most informal way on a coal shovel. The train arrived at Fargo, N. D., yesterday afternoon. There would probably have been loss of life but for the whiskey, say the passengers.

SPATTERED SARAH WITH EGGS

Quebec, Dec. 8.—Rotten eggs were thrown at Madame Bernhardt after a performance at the Auditorium last night on account of an interview she gave yesterday to the number of newspapers.

This interview appeared in the L'Evenement, and was uncomplimentary to Canadians. When the performance was over and while Madame Bernhardt was driving to the station, eggs were thrown at her, which she fortunately escaped, but some of her party in other sleighs received several of them.

The OBERSEER has taken a number of orders for engraved visiting cards as a result of the advertising we have been doing for the past two weeks. Those wishing extra fine work should give us a call and see our line of samples before ordering.

Christmas Day

is the hardest day in the year on your wife. After looking after the dinner and other meals she is too tired to get any enjoyment out of the holiday. Why not give her a chance.

Fat Your Dinner Here

It certainly will be as well cooked and served as any you could get at home. It will save your wife a lot of trouble and worry. It will save you considerable money, too. Try it this year, anyway.

Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe, for sale by Newlin Drug Co. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
