The question is asked all over the state, who will be our next United States Senator? Will Governor Chamberlain appoint a Democrat, or will the promise he made several days ago, that if Senator Mitchell would resign, he would appoint some Republican, still be binding? Everything is simply speculation as to what the Governor may do. Some argue that recognizing the fact that he will be called upon to head his party for re-election, he will use this opportunity to advance his personal interest. But whether he can afford to appoint a
