AMUSEMENTS

BEFORE THE DREWS

Histrionic genius has a way of perpetuating itself. Witness the long line of Booths, and Barrymores, and Drews. And now there has come out of the west a new star who is the last member of the oldest theatrical family in America.

THE ADAMS SISTER'S COMING

The following notices will give some idea of the entertainment of these little ladies who will entertain the public next Monday evening at the M. E. Church.

The Misses Lucy and Sarah Adams were greeted by a good house last evening, and their entertainment was an unqualified success. From the first number until the last encore had been responded to, the little ladies with their refined specialties and excellent impersonation kept the audience in the best of humor.

U. OF O. CLUB

The amusement lovers are promised a treat with the appearance of the University of Oregon Glee Club which appears at Steward's opera house on December 21.

WHITMAN GLEE CLUB

The Whitman Glee Club has decided to vary the usual concert program, by dividing it into two parts. The first is made up with the "heavy" songs, opened with the "Hunting Chorus" from Robin Hood.

SPORTS

CHRISTMAS FOOT BALL GAME

The football game to be played in this city on Christmas day between the Pendleton commercial club and the La Grande team promises to be a lively, hard fought contest.

All foot ball players are urged to report at Armory Hall tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, at 8:30, as but a short time remains to prepare for the big game.

SATURDAY'S GAME AT PORTLAND. With the score standing 6 to 5 in favor of Multnomah and only eight minutes of the second half played the Corvallis team became disgusted at the rulings of the officials, and walked off the field.

BASKET BALL. Candidates for the Commercial Club basket ball team have been ordered to report at the club gymnasium tonight at 8 o'clock.

REFORM NOT ABOLISH. Delegates from thirteen colleges in conference in New York decided that football should not be abolished, but reformed. In view of the fact that twenty-one young men and one young woman were killed in the game during the present year, the reformation should be of a decidedly radical character.
