Terrific Race With Death. "Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death. "As a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life, I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at "Newlin's Drug Store," price 50c.

MAKE A COSTLY ARREST

New York, Dec. 11.—It cost the city of New York $14,000 to arrest William Lindsey early yesterday morning who, when informed of the glory and distinction thus unexpectedly thrust upon him did not make the slightest protest when the magistrate sentenced him to six months in the Kings county penitentiary on a charge of vagrancy. The novel position which Lindsey occupied was brought about through the sudden activity of Policeman Thomas J. Herbert of the Liberty avenue station, Brooklyn, where he broke a record of 10 years with no arrests. A commotion was caused at the station when Herbert brought in a prisoner and it was realized that the policeman, after drawing $14,000 in his ten years of service as salary, had finally done something to earn it.

RICH, BUT CAN'T BUY FOOD

New York, With furtive eyes, a crisp $1,930 bank note crackling in his ragged pocket, a tramp is slinking about New York, a prey to strange emotions. He received the bill as a reward for returning to Mrs. T. Edwin Ward, of One Hundred and Fourteenth street and Riverside drive, the diamond brooch which she recently lost in front of the Garrick theater. He requested that his name be not made public, fearing that an army of his Bowery antiell's Kitchen friends might descend upon him at once.

PLIGHT OF TRAMP WHO WAS GIVEN $1,000 FOR RESTORING BROOCH COULDN'T CHANGE IT.

The places that he knew now know him no more. He feared to sleep, lest his wealth should be extracted from his pocket. He mistrusts all banks, cannot eat, because no restaurateur had the change; they would require to make change, even had they the necessary cash, fearing the note, coming from such a source, would be spurious.

WHEN HE COLLECTED THE NEW BILL AT A JEWELRY STORE IN MALDEN LANE HIS EMOTIONS WERE TOO OVERPOWERING TO BE ANALYZED.

"Say," he said, "what am I goin' ter do with this thing? No one'll change it; I ain't been able to buy a square meal."

MR. WARD, WHO CHANCED TO BE IN THE STORE, ADVISED HIM TO PLACE IT IN SOMETHING. BUT A CUNNING LOOK PASSED OVER HIS TRAMP'S FACE.

"Nix," he exclaimed; "no one handles this thing but me; I ain't takin' no chances." He passed out into the street again and that was the last seen of him, but Mr. Ward says he has no doubt that he is still stealing about the city, and is tightly pressed against the pocket.

COLLECTS A TEN-CENT TAX

New Jersey Judge Renders a Novel Opinion—Conviction Is Set Aside. Morristown, N. J.—Justice Edward L. Cool, of Madison, who has been the terror of automobilists for many years, has rendered further distinction as a wise proponent of the law. Under his latest decision it has been found that a woman's tongue when used upon a justice of the peace, becomes a concealed weapon.

REVENGE AT LAST.

A St. Louis judge fined a girl $25 because she broke $15 worth of dishes in order to obtain satisfaction for three dollars' worth of wages. No doubt the St. Louis matrons will have that decision framed and hung up in their kitchens.

LOOSE ENVILOUS OF A HEN

Day State Bird Lays an Egg That Weighs Thirteen Ounces—Career of the Goose.

North Attleboro, Mass.—When the news reached here that an ambitious hen in New England had laid an egg that measured 5 1/2 inches in circumference all the poultry in the neighborhood got busy to test the record. Up to date only one notable achievement has been reported. That comes from Preston D. White's brown African goose, which it seems entered the contest, though it did not belong to the chicken class.

Curious Story of Domestic Related in British Court—Think It Is Mesmerism.
