SHOES REPLACE OLD BOOTS.

Folks Becoming Sensible in the Past Century—Ancient Footwear Being Discarded.

Somebody wants to know if boots are made any more. They are, answers the St. Louis Star-Chronicle. Your Uncle Hiram, who will be 81 his next birthday, and who flouts all new-fangled things from automobiles to patent cornshellers, wears boots. He says the rheumatism would be the death of him without calf-skin coverings. There's still a limited market for bootjacks. If you will study the foot covering of men and women for the last century you will be surprised to see how sensible folks are getting. We wear shoes instead of boots because they are neater, more comfortable, less expensive and not clumsy. It would be next to impossible for Dame Fashion to make us get to boots. Henry Plantagenet, duke of Anjou, wore shoes the points of which were two feet in length. That was for the purpose of hiding an excrescence on one of his royal feet. People who had no excrescences on their feet followed suit. They had to. In the reign of Queen Mary square toes were the rage, until a royal proclamation was issued that no shoes were to be worn with toes more than six inches square. In this city a single shoe firm has an output worth a million dollars a month. We are the greatest shoe manufacturers in the world. Our shoes go to all nations. They find increased favor because of their cheapness, durability and elegance.

Performing Russian Bear Embraces Girl with a Date and She Has Visions of "Gerald."

The great performing Russian bear had escaped from the captivity under which he had chafed for so many months; but he was finding that liberty had its drawbacks. For many weary hours he had prowled, but nothing in the shape of food had he seen.

Suddenly he gave a growl of delight, for, sitting on a stile, he espied a toothsome little lady, who was evidently awaiting the coming of a young man.

Bruin did not stop to ponder upon his good fortune; he seized her in a mighty hug. For awhile she said nothing; but as he exerted more of his tremendous strength she murmured:

"I don't think you are quite as strong as you were, Gerald."

Then once more melancholy settled upon Bruin. He had done his best; but the young ladies of this country were beyond him.

With a roar of despair he retraced his steps to the menagerie, and gave himself up without a struggle.

Profits of Monte Carlo.

This year's profit on the Casino at Monte Carlo shares is 22,000,000 francs more than last year's record of 20,000,000, and is equivalent to six per cent. interest on the present price of the shares. The directors will probably authorize to make a new issue of shares in under their fresh agreement with the prince of Monaco the charges upon the Casino are increasingly heavy, through the increased subvention to the prince to defray the cost of the new harbor works and the contract to build the new opera house.

Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe, for sale by Newlin Drug Co. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
