MARRIED

PEARSON-WILKINSON—On the 20th day of December, 1905, in this city, Mr. W. L. Pearson and Miss Emma Wilkinson, John E. Hough, Justice of the Peace officiating. Mr. Pearson resides at North Powder and Miss Wilkinson was a Union girl. They left on the evening east bound train for their new home in or near North Powder.

Both the contracting parties are well and favorably known in Union county and the Oasuvve joins with their many friends in wishing them a pleasant voyage on the sea of matrimony and all the happiness possible.

OSTEOPATHY FOR CONSUMPTION

Medical Talk, which is decidedly not an Osteopathic publication, devotes some space to the case of Miss Munson, of Winfield, Kansas, who was cured of consumption by Osteopathy. The editor states that he wishes people "to know that Osteopathic physicians are not necessarily bone-docors, but that they successfully treat many diseases which the drug doctors admit that they are unable to cure." Such evidences of liberality and appreciation are very pleasing.

SHANGAI AGAIN QUIET

(Scripps News Association)
Shanghai, Dec. 20.—The city is quiet today and business has been resumed.

TO THE CHILDREN.

The children can write their letters to Santa Claus and mail them at Newlin Drug Co.'s store.

Always Accommodating

You will always find us accommodating. Try us and see if we are not ever ready to oblige, and our prices are right.
A. T. HILL, prescription druggist

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up toward the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores 25c at Newlin's Drug Store.

Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and L. Grippe, for sale by Newlin Drug Co. Price 60c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
