RIFLE
SHOOTING MATCHES

Rifle shooting matches are the rage on the Flat section. Every Friday or Saturday some one of the farmers holds a match which is attended by a large number of men from all over the section. Remarkably good scores are being made as some of the best rifle shots in Eastern Oregon reside there and are always in attendance.—Recorder.

AMUSEMENTS

COLLEGE SPIRIT

The college man's entertainment or his way of entertaining, is distinctive in many ways. One is that through the whole thing there runs that lively, healthy, wholesome spirit of fun, rivalry and patriotism which gives the atmosphere the peculiar flavor and composes the much-talked-of, poorly-understood "College Spirit." The Whitman College Glee Club in part two of their concert try to portray this spirit in its true sense. The date of the La Grande concert is set at Tuesday, Dec. 26, and will be given in the Opera House.

CAMILLE

The production of Camille by the Georgia Harper Company at the Parker last evening was very much liked by the large audience present. The play has great strength, which is clearly brought out by the superb acting of Miss Harper. The part gave her ample opportunity to display her genius. The gowns worn by Miss Harper are certainly very beautiful.—(Eugene, Ore., Guard.) Steward's opera house, Dec. 28.

FRUITGROWERS' CONVENTION

Arrangements have been perfected for the reception of the annual convention of the Northwestern Fruitgrowers' Association which will meet in La Grande, Oregon, January 3-4-5, 1906. The attendance will be larger than was expected or even hoped for by the managers of the La Grande Commercial Club. The exhibit is practically complete and the delegates will receive a treat which will open their eyes regarding the possibilities of Union county. The Commercial Club building will be turned over to the delegates and visitors for this occasion, and and everything possible done for the entertainment of the convention. Special railroad rates have been secured from all points in the Northwest and hotel accommodations looked after. The citizens of La Grande invite every fruitgrower and all others interested in the fruit industry to attend this meeting and assure them a right royal welcome.

An excellent program for the occasion has been prepared by Hon. G. D. Huffman, secretary of the association, and the time of the association will be well taken up. The program includes not only many valuable addresses and papers by those in touch with the fruit business but also many musical and literary numbers of special note. The musical selections will be under the direction of the Lyle Musicale and the literary part of the program under the direction of the Neighborhood Club.

VALUABLE HORSE DROWNED

While trying to ford the Wallowa river where the temporary bridge was washed out, a freighter named Hunter lost one of his valuable horses Wednesday evening. When nearing the shore the animal fell and drowned before he could be rescued.—Elgin Recorder.
