SOCIETY

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY

At Miss Pearl Huff's request, thirty five friends gathered at her home last evening, to meet Miss Pearl Harris and Mr. Loren Harris, of Pendleton, who are spending their holidays in our city. Various amusing games were played and prizes given to Miss Pearl Harris and Mr. Charles Spencer in the cracker contest. During the evening the Spencer boys delighted their hearers with several instrumental selections. Refreshments were served at the close of this merry evening.

WEDDING AT PUYALLUP

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the beautiful home of Mr. C. A. Stokes, known as Trout Lake Farm, King county, Washington, at high noon, Monday, Dec. 25, 1905, when Miss Lucy C. Rearden was united in marriage to Mr. G. Cleveland Hopper of La Grande, Oregon. Rev. J. Franklin Day, pastor of the First Baptist church of Puyallup, Washington officiating.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white crepe de lygne trimmed in white point lace and satin ribbon, carrying a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attired in a black tweed full dress suit. The ceremony was performed under a large wedding bell. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ferns, Oregon grape and evergreens. After congratulations the wedding party of forty was invited into the spacious dining room where a superb banquet was served. The presents were many and beautiful.

The groom is well and favorably known in Eastern Oregon where he is interested in mining work, being a member of one of the pioneer families of the Grande Ronde valley. The bride has spent her life in the west and is loved and admired by a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopper will spend a week in Tacoma and Seattle each. Then they will go to La Grande, Oregon, where they will make their future home. Their many friends in Oregon and Washington tender them most generous congratulations.

STATIONERY AT HALF

We find it best at intervals to put our stationery stock in order by closing out all broken lines at much less than cost. One of these opportunities has now come for you. This morning we put on sale 128 boxes of stationery at 9c to 25c a box. These papers have sold at 20c to 50c a box. They are as good as new, but we pay you half the price to take them quickly.

Not over two packages to a customer at these prices.—NEWLIN DRUG COMPANY.
