LOCAL ITEMS

D. Fitzgerald will go to Dyyton, Wash. tomorrow for a few days business trip.
Judge Wilson, of Union, is spending a few days in this city.
Archie Conley, the young Cove farmer, was a visitor in this city yesterday.
Ben Bowan of Wallowa county is in the city visiting his son, Adney Rogers of this city.
Judge Robert Eakin returned last evening from Portland where he has been on a business trip.
Messrs Fred Bock and G. W. Thomas left last night for a business trip to Mexico. They will absent about a month.
L. Billings, of Imbler, returned to his home yesterday after being present at the Fruitgrowers' Association.
Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Swackhammar returned to their home in Union after spending a few days here visiting friends.

The United Order of Artesians will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Aldrich, at which time the newly elected officers will be installed.

Mrs. Lena Blum of Portland is up from that place and will visit friends in Elgin before returning. She was met here by D. Sommer of Elgin.

Dr. H. A. Ketchum, Sabbath School Missionary for the Presbyterian church in Grande Ronde Presbytry went through this city today on his way to help Rev. L. S. Mochell of Summerville with special meetings.

Do not fail to hear Miss Julia Fraser of California Field Secretary of Board of Home Missions tomorrow night at the Presbyterian church. Miss Fraser is a very interesting speaker. Her stories of the Mexicans and freedmen are most interesting and instructing.

ICE CROP HARVESTED

Julius Roesch reports that he has 800 tons of ice in his refrigerator plant, and 600 tons in the ice house at the ice pond. Even with 1400 tons on hand he still lacks 500 tons. The ice is of fair quality and is from 8 to 10 inches thick.
If there is no more ice this season Mr. Roesch will order his ice plant at once to make up the shortage. If there is more ice, the plant will not be installed until late next summer, as intended.

MISS ALICE WEDS FEB. 17

Washington, Jan. 6.—The President and Mrs. Roosevelt announced tonight that the wedding of Miss Alice Roosevelt to Nicholas Longworth will occur on Saturday, February 17, at 12 o'clock noon in the east room of the White House.

BOY KILLED WHILE COASTING

Salt Lake, Utah, Jan. 6.—Lorin Snowball, a boy, while coasting down hill on Third street, ran under a street car and was instantly killed today.

STEEL RANGES

I have the celebrated Majestic and Superior Steel Ranges which have no equal as to baking qualities and durability. Try one and be convinced.

A few heating stoves left, upon which I am giving 10 per cent off, while they last.

Don't forget about our cross cut saws and logging tools.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY

Hardware and crockery.

SOCIETY

KAFFE-KLATCH
Perhaps the largest social event of the week was the whist party last evening given by Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barry at the latter's elegant home on Adams Ave. There were about twenty guests, besides the members of the Kaffe-Klatch. Among the many pleasant features of the evening were the piano solos by Mrs. W. W. Berry and Miss Felice Lyne and readings by Miss Matlock. All social occasions in the Barry home are delightfully successful and this was no exception.

401
Miss Margaret Porter will entertain the members of the 401 Club Monday evening.

G. A. M.
The G. A. M. will give a dancing party tonight.

DELEGATES APPOINTED

President Wm. Miller of the Commercial Club has appointed the following delegates to attend the State Development League which meets in Portland on the 12th. The State Press Association also meets at the same time.
Geo. L. Stoddard, Geo. L. Palmer, Geo. H. Currey, Fred B. Currey, J. W. McAlister, C. D. Huffman and A. P. Davis.

BOUND OVER

William Hunter, a young man aged 19 years, was arrested yesterday by Constable McLachlin, charged with the larceny of a horse the property of S. O. Swackhammer. He sold the animal to a neighbor Mr. Gifford near Summerville. He waived examination and Justice Hough held him in the sum of $400.

VISITS IN PENDLETON

James Reavis, formerly a dentist in La Grande, but now located on a fine alfalfa farm 10 miles west of Walla Walla on the Walla Walla river, is in the city today visiting his brother William Reavis, who purchased the Nowlin property on Garden street, and his father, ex-Judge D. B. Reavis of Wallowa county, who is spending the winter in the city with his son, William.—East Oregonian.

OYSTER TIME

is always looked forward to with expectation. What more delicious than a plate of Blue Points on the shell, or a stew, or a fry, or broiled.

OYSTERS, OYSTERS, OYSTERS

any way you want, is the way we set them. Oysters we keep are the best in the land and all have a good pedigree. If you want to give an oyster party, our restaurant is the place to bring them to. We hope to see you many times during oyster season.
