A MODERN MIRACLE

"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. R. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn., "she was so wasted by coughing up pus from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched by her bed-side forty-eight hours; when, at my urgent request Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, and with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman today." 50c and $1.00 at NEWLIN DRUG CO. THE MAN WHO IS TO BE ROOSEVELT'S SON-IN-LAW

As a Man Who Takes Life Easy -- Is Willing to Let Well Enough Alone, and is Reconciled to His Limitations -- "He Votes Right."

The following description of Congressman Longworth taken from "The Literary Digest" will enable the reader to form a fair idea of the man, who on January 17, expects to wed the President's daughter, Miss Alice Roosevelt.

Representative Nicholas Longworth, whose engagement to Miss Alice L. Roosevelt was recently announced from Washington, is the only son of the late Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, one of the wealthy men of the Ohio metropolis a generation ago. He was born in Cincinnati, November 5, 1869. After graduating from Harvard in 1891, Mr. Longworth was admitted to the bar of Cincinnati, and he is now serving his second term a Representative from the First Ohio District. The wedding, it is announced, will take place on February 17 at the White House, and will be the first to be celebrated there since the marriage of President Cleveland to Miss Frances Folsom, in 1886. The New York World says of Mr. Longworth:

Mr. Longworth is five feet eight inches in height, with a round, good-natured face, and extremely bald. He is always well dressed. He is rich, and his family is one of the oldest in Cincinnati. He does not practise his profession very assiduously. When he had had his college fling and had settled down he went into politics and became a follower of George B. Cox, the recently deposed Cincinnati boss.

Mr. Longworth used to be a champion golfer in the Cincinnati district. He has also had his fun. Once, on a wager, he drove a golf ball from the front door of the St. Nicholas Hotel to Covington in a certain number of strokes through the city streets. He won his bet, but had to pay for several broken windows. He is generally spoken of by those who know him as a "good fellow." He is polite, amiable and reconciled to his own limitations, which lead him in the direction of society rather than statesmanship. He has done nothing in the House during the time he has served that has attracted attention, but has always voted "right." He is a favorite of Speaker Cannon, and has places on the Foreign Affairs and Pensions Committees.
