A MODERN MIRACLE

"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. R. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn., "she was so wasted by coughing up pus from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched by her bed-side forty-eight hours; when, at my urgent request Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, and with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman today." 50¢ and $1.00 at NEWLIN DRUG CO. ## HARVEY GRAHAM'S PLATFORM

James Harvey Graham, the Democrat's candidate for congressman from the second district, has his petition in the hands of the printer and expects to put it in circulation within a day or two. He has his platform printed on his petition as follows:

I promise to an honest and faithful representative of the people.
I believe in the election of senators by the direct vote of the people.
I will work and vote for Oregon river and harbor improvements.
For just and equitable railroad rate legislation.
The regulation of trusts by national legislation.
Liberal appropriations for government irrigation projects.
Restriction of undesirable immigration and regulation of private car companies.
A federal judicial district for Eastern Oregon.
Believing our infant industries large enough to wean, I favor a tariff system for government expenses only and not for the special protection of any industry.
I stand for the people, and against bosses, politicians, trusts and grafters.

QUITE SURE OF SUCCESS

Dr. James Withycombe, candidate for the nomination for governor on the republican ticket before the direct primaries, spent part of yesterday in the city. He is director of the experiment station and farm of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, and is well known for his interest in agriculture and agricultural education throughout the state.

Dr. Withycombe resided twenty years in Portland and owned a farm near that city. He has always taken a keen interest in agriculture and stockraising, both as an occupation and as commercial products. He is very familiar with the state's resources in this regard, and during his residence in Portland, naturally became well acquainted with commercial life and the possibilities of developing the state's natural resources through better water and railroad connections. He considers agriculture, horticulture and stockraising as the greatest resources of this country and such subjects as a deeper channel, open river, irrigation projects, mining, etc., appeal to him as great opportunities to develop the state agriculturally.

Dr. Withycombe is confident of his nomination. He is assured of very liberal support as well as from Willamette valley and Eastern Oregon. He does not claim to be a politician, but hopes to make the race free from any machinery of politics. He is a very agreeable and entertaining gentleman.—Pendleton Tribune.

A GRAND SUCCESS

After two years of rest the Hardscrabble Literary Society is again active with all of its ancient splendor. Those who attended the meeting on Friday evening Jan. 5th, were entertained with a program both interesting and instructive.

The question for debate was, "Resolved that there is more knowledge gained from reading than from travel." The debaters for the affirmative were Mr. John Martin, Willis Wright and Loyd Kerns, and those for the negative were Wm. Eames, Tom Wright and John Wright. The decision was given favor of the negative.

Those who took part in the dialogue deserve a compliment. Among the other entertaining parts of the program was the song rendered by the Martin Brothers, and also the poem, "Over The Hills to the Poorhouse" which was given admirably by Willis Wright.

The next meeting will be held on Friday evening, Jan. 19th, and the question for debate is, "Woman Suffrage." After the debate will follow many entertaining features too numerous to mention. All are urged to attend. It is too good to miss, for there you will hear questions propounded with the wisdom of Solomon, and declamations given that would rival the bower of Antony.—W. M.

LATHROP TO WASHINGTON

John E. Lathrop, former editor of the East Oregonian, who has been appointed secretary to United States Senator Gearin, has not yet reached Washington, although he left Portland over a week ago. He went over the Great Northern and has been delayed by storms in Minnesota and the Dakotas and will, perhaps, reach the national capital today or tomorrow. Lathrop was for 11 years employed on the East Oregonian in this city, and four years ago left for Portland, where he was employed as editor of the Oregon Daily Journal for a time, and after resigning that position has been doing special work for the Journal as political writer.—East Oregonian.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up toward the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25¢ at Newlin's Drug Store.
