MACHINE SHOPS AND ROUND HOUSE FOR LA GRANDE

Two hundred and fifty thousand for La Grande. That, according to a statement that a well known railroad official made, will be the amount that the O. R. & N. Company will expend in this city during the present year. This means a large new round house and machine shops in keeping with the present railroad importance as well as the future outlook which is past the speculative period. The fact that the O. R. & N. Company is now extending their line into Willowa county and not only that but the old rumor that the company is to build down the Grande Ronde river to Lawiston is a settled plan well known and it is only a question of time (which may now be fixed) when this will be done.

BURNS CELEBRATION

The Robert Burns Society announces that it will celebrate the 142nd anniversary of the birth of the poet on Friday evening, January 26th, with the usual banquet and literary exercises. All members of the society and those eligible who wish to become members are requested to register their names with the Secretary, Wm. Grant, on or before Monday, January 22d, and the men are requested to pay their dues of $1.00. This rule is made necessary in order that the committee on refreshments will know how many to provide for whom to solicit. This applies only to members living in La Grande. All others can register on the night of the entertainment. Better all register at once and receive a card from the Secretary which will admit yourself and family. You can call up the Secretary by telephone if you have not time to call and see him. By order of the executive committee. Wm. Grant, Secretary.

CITY POLITICS

Candidates for city honors will soon be announced in fact the fight for marshal is now being framed up on about the same lines as last year, that is Rayburn is an avowed candidate for reelection also I. W. Faulk who has been a special officer for months and F. P. Childers who by many is considered a candidate has not yet announced himself. So far I. R. Snook is the only candidate for Recorder and possibly may have no opposition. At the present time the office of mayor seems to be resting easy on many possibilities but is drifting hither and thither which is also true of most of the men to be chosen for council. There is plenty of time and as usual it is quite possible that there will not be enough offices to go around.

MAJOR IVANHOE'S PLATFORM

The following is the platform upon which Major F. S. Ivanhoe goes before the people of Union and Willowa counties for the nomination of the office of district attorney: If I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office diligently, honestly, and without favor or oppression, correctly represent the people of said district, or of other of said counties, in all litigation, civil or criminal. I will correctly and carefully advise such public officials of said district, as may need or desire it, concerning their rights, duties and responsibilities. In the performance of such duties I will use every fair and legal means to fully protect all public interests, lessen crime, and secure a full measure of service from public servants, without unnecessary or improper public expense. F. S. IVANHOE.

DROPPED DEAD

Word was received in this city by phone from Elgin that William Patton, who is well known in this city and county, dropped dead while in the act of putting on his coat, this morning. Until a few months ago he was employed in the Foley house.

GRAND JURY AT WEISER

Weiser, Jan. 15.—The winter term of the district court for Washington county is to convene at Weiser this morning. Judge Smith presiding. A grand jury has been summoned to attend this morning, it being expected that the its principal task will be to make a searching investigation into the recent cases of horse and cattle stealing, and the alleged existence of an organized gang of stock thieves. Several attorneys from Boise will be in attendance at the opening of court today.

BETTER DISINFECT

Veterinary Surgeon Charlton of this city advises all horse owners to disinfect their stables as the disease of glanders is becoming quite prevalent in sections about Walla Walla. Twenty-five head in one band were recently ordered killed by the Washington state authorities and in Vancouver B. C. 300 head were destroyed. Glanders is a disease that is almost impossible to cure once of prevention is worth many pounds of cure.

La Grande is so situated, lying between two large mountain divides, and the terrain of the Elgin branch, makes it the most economical point to maintain a machine shop and large round house. We have enjoyed the largest payroll on the O. R. & N. since its construction, which for many years has been not below $350,000 and this is to be greatly increased when the new shops are enlarged and all of the heavy work that now goes to Portland will be repaired at La Grande. It was the intention of the company to make these improvements last fall, but the railroad war and proposed development all over this state curtailed many plans, but now things are becoming settled once more and we are informed that the improvements in La Grande will be taken up in the coming spring.

AMUSEMENTS

A WEEK OF PLEASURE

The Grace Johnson Company which opens a week's engagement at Steward's opera house, carries one of the most complete companies traveling in the west at popular prices. They have established a record for themselves that is seldom equaled. The company presents a repertoire of high class royal plays, with special scenery for every production. The opening play will be the great eastern success "An Artist's Wife." A charming foreign comedy-drama in four acts. This play had a long run at the American Theater in New York and enjoyed a successful run on the road for two seasons. This company opens their engagement here Monday, Jan. 22. Seats on sale at the usual place.

HANFORD COMING

Charles B. Hanford recently remarked that he hesitates to mention his repertory as consisting of classic plays. So reluctantly has the word "classic" been used to describe works which do not appeal to public appreciation, that a player who values the popular verdict as highly as does Mr. Hanford may well feel apprehensive of it. One of the members of his company who up to his present engagement has appeared only in modern comedies, recently saw the first production of a new play. "Was it a good play?" asked Mr. Hanford. "It must have been," was the answer. "The manager, author, and star all said it was a good play, but I went to sleep in the middle of the second act. I guess it was another of these classics."

SIGN THE PETITION

La Grande should wake up and sign the petition to permit the people to vote upon the constitutional amendment which provides for the initiative and referendum on local, special, municipal and county laws.

SNOOT'S BILL PASSED

Washington, Jan. 16.—The senate today passed Snoot's bill giving homesteaders on the recently opened Uintah reservation an extension until May 15, next, to establish residence.

PARALYTIC IS IMPROVING

Paul Lederle, of La Grande, who is confined to St. Anthony's hospital with a stroke of paralysis, is somewhat improved. Yesterday he was moved from his bed to a chair, the first time he has left his bed since he was attacked with the disease three months ago.—East Oregonian.

MEDICAL WORLD TALKS

Osteopathy is of more than passing interest to the medical profession and the public at large are the articles in the "Medical World," by Dr. W. A. Hinkle, M. D. and D. O. He tells his medical brethren the truth of Osteopathy and endeavors to sweep away the prejudice in their minds occasioned by the misrepresentation constantly going on in their medical journals, which articles of falsity are written by men prejudiced and no better informed on Osteopathy than the men they would inform. He says of Osteopathy and Massage: "What the engine wiper is to the skilled mechanic the masseur is to the schooled Osteopath. Massage is to Osteopathy what patent medicine is to scientific medication; a shot-gun prescription without diagnosis or accurate prescribing. True, both Osteopathy and Massage are mechanical and in that respect only, are they similar."

Dr. Hinkle is competent to write, having been first a medical doctor, and is now an Osteopath. If our medical doctors will read Dr. Hinkle's articles, with some degree of thought, it will vastly inform them and greatly ally the prejudice in their minds.

DON'T REST CONTENT

In the matter of cigars until you have smoked at least one C. E. Hackman there are no cigars that will afford a measure of satisfaction—it remains for the C. ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stock holders of the Oregon, Montana Development Company will be held in the city of La Grande, Oregon, on Friday, January 26, 1906, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers and board of directors and for the transaction of any other business that may come before said meeting. W. W. RANDALL, Pres. E. A. WILLS, Sec., Pro. tem.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up toward the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores 25c at Newlin's Drug Store.

ATTENTION VOTERS

All persons residing within the county seat are required to register at the office of the County Clerk, and when going to register should leave a definite description of the location of their residence either by giving the number of their lot and block, or by giving their street number. And all electors who are natural citizens, or those who are entitled to vote under their declaration of intention, should bring their papers with them.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines. I got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at Newlin's Dr.

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPLE. MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is a kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 2 to 5. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study. Opposite the Foley House, over the candy store. Phone 473.
