DEPENDENT ON OTHERS

For the ten months ending with October 1905 the tonnage movement in the foreign trade of the United States is given in the Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance published by the United States Department of Commerce and Labor as follows: Entered during the fiscal year ending June 30th., 1906, sail-vessels 3,182,929 tons, steam ships 27,800,288 tons. Total tonnage for the year 30,885,217; of this tonnage employed in our foreign trade there were 1,363,163 sail and 5,717,461 steam owned by Americans, a total of American tonnage employed in our foreign trade of 7,080,624 tons or less than one quarter of the tonnage necessary to conduct our foreign trade.

The effect of depending on foreign ships to do our transportation is illustrated by the following statement from official source; "Special Agent Crist, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, has reported that merchandise shipped by expensive transcontinental and Pacific routes cannot come into competition in the Orient with like commodities coming by the all-water routes from European countries. Until steamship lines regularly ply between Atlantic ports and North China, as English and German lines are now doing, he says, goods from this country must go through many more hands than European goods and must go at a high cost of transportation, deadly to competition."

Every good citizen will take the trouble to register.

Of course you are going to register, but have you registered yet?

Remember that in order to vote at the primary nominating election you must register. It is your duty to register.

If you really wish to have a voice regarding the men who shall hold office you should register. Only those who register have a voice in the nominations.

Every man who does his duty and registers becomes a delegate to the greatest nominating convention ever held in the state of Oregon. Are you a delegate?

Candidates for office are moving about as much as possible but are being hampered by the lack of registered voters to sign their petitions.

In justice to decency and public policy the city should revoke the license of C. C. Rockwell. He for years has been a disturbing element in this city and such men should not be permitted to be in the saloon business.

Arizona's delegate in congress is charging about demanding that an investigation be made into the allegation that a corrupt lobby is maintained in Washington to fight statehood. If he should secure an investigation he might discover more than he wishes to know officially. Everybody in Washington seems to understand that such a lobby is on hand and is making itself very conspicuous. It opposes statehood, single or joint, and it has not taken any great pains to keep its opinions secret. It is a product of Arizona of which the territory has no reason to feel proud.—Idaho Statesman.

The death of Marshall Field will be universally regretted wherever the public possessed a knowledge of the man. He believed in and practiced the "square deal." Though he accumulated a fortune of over $100,000,000 he never took advantage of another, or attempted to secure a monopoly on any of the necessities of life. The trusts and combines had no allurements for him. He was one of the few men who secured wealth in a legitimate manner. His annual payment of taxes was larger than that of any other man in the United States, though others may have been worth twice as much. He made no effort to avoid payment, because he felt that it was right he should bear his share of the public burdens. So far as the public knows, there was but one Marshall Field, in business sagacity, far-sightedness and high ideals of commercial honor.

No woman can look beautiful without good health. A woman's good health depends on those organs peculiarly feminine, and which so often become disordered, causing misery and dragging-down-pain. Nature's laws are perfect, health endures if you obey them, but disease follows disobedience. The distressing complaints of women are often brought about by catching cold at a critical period, breathing foul indoors' air and long hours of work and nervous tension. Go straight to Nature for the cure—the forest. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is Nature's cure for the distressing complaints of women. Prof. King, M. D., in his American Dispensary, says of Black Cohosh or Black Snake-root—"our early American Indians set a high value on this root in diseases of women. It is surpassed by no other drug, in conjunctive conditions of the parts where there are dragging-pains and tenderness."

Lady's Slipper root is a "nerve stimulant and tonic, improving both circulation and nutrition of the nerve centers—favors sleep and cheerful condition of the mind; of service in mental depression, nervous headaches, irregularities of women with despondency."—Prof. King. Besides the above ingredients there are—Golden Seal, Unicorn and Blue Cohosh roots in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Over 1000 pages and illustrated. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.
