THE ARTIST'S WIFE

The Grace Johnson Company presented "The Artist's Wife" last night to a fair sized audience. The bill was not a bad one, and when one stops to realize that it was a popular priced entertainment there was really no room for complaint. A host of hilarious memories is awakened by the mention of "The Taming of the Shrew" for those who have seen the play and those who have not will have an opportunity to do so at Steward's opera house on Saturday Feb. 3d. Mr. Charles B. Hanford whose previous presentations of plays in this state are a sufficient guarantee for the reliability of all plays his manager Mr. F. Lawrence Walker announces for him, has arranged a special production of this favorite play for his present tour. Mr. Hanford will appear in the role of "Petruchio" and the

Of course this news is received each week but it is fresh news to the audience each time, and really deserves some attention on the part of the surviving brother. The bill for tonight will be "A Gambler's Wife."
