A TRIAL SOLICITED

WOULD BE SECRETARY OF STATE

F. W. Benson, of Roseburg, a candidate before the primary nominating election for the office of secretary of state, was a La Grande visitor yesterday. Mr. Benson was here becoming acquainted with the people of this part of the state. Though he is probably one of the best known atorneys is Western Oregon, his acquaintance with Eastern Oregon is somewhat limited. However, by the time he has completed his first trip through the Inland Empire, he will be in a position to know more of the vast region east of the Cascades. Mr. Benson has held several offices of public trust in Douglas county, having served two terms as county school superintendent, and also two terms as county clerk of the same county. The past nine years he has been practicing his profession and incidentally taking an active part in county and state politics. Mr. Benson's record both political and personal is clean and free from question. Should he secure the nomination, there is no reason why he should not receive the undivided support of every Republican in the state. Mr. Benson left this morning for Baker City, but expects to return and spend Sunday here visiting his sister, Mrs. Geo. Carpy.

TO THINK ABOUT

He who squanders health is the spend-thrift of happiness.

All medicine in the world cannot be substituted for exercise.

Skilled Osteopaths not only cure and prevent disease, but they teach the art of keeping well.

Osteopathic treatment never forces but removes barriers from nature's pathway.

If you would escape the annual attacks of hay fever and asthma, anticipate the season by beginning osteopathic treatment which will remove the cause of over-sensitive nerves.

Save your kidneys and heart through Osteopathic treatment and thus avoid dropsy, constipation, rheumatism and other ills.

For 12 years Osteopathy skillfully applied, has been transforming broken down nerves and mental wrecks into sound, healthy and vigorous types of manhood and womanhood.

An old time saying, "It takes a rogue to catch a rogue," applies to internal drugging. The rogue is seldom, if ever caught, and the sufferer is burdened with two rogues instead of one to hamper nature in recovery.

BAKER CITY RAID

Sheriff Harvey K. Brown accompanied by Mr. Cenny about 10 o'clock last night raided the saloons and gambling places and made several arrests where slot machines were found in use and gambling going on. So far as could be learned the only places caught were the Artic and the state. It is supposed that this action grew out of the suit recently brought by a man named McGuinnis against the proprietor of the Artic for money lost in gambling. After the raid none of the officers could be found nor the judge issuing the warrants, but those apprehended were told to appear in court today.—Baker City Democrat.

AUSTRALIANS ARE CELEBRATING

Melbourne, Jan. 26.—One hundred and eighteen years ago today the first white settlement was established in Australia, in the present province of New South Wales. As usual the anniversary is celebrated in all parts of Australia and by Australians in all parts of the world. In all government seats official anniversaries are held today, with addresses and toasts. All newspapers contain special anniversary reviews in honor of the occasion.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE GAMBLER'S WIFE"

"The Gambler's Wife" as presented last night by the Grace Johnson Company was probably their best since their opening night. The actors were able to throw a great deal of work into the performance as it was an especially good house for a week's stand show. Paul Pilkington as Jack O'Diamonds, the gambler, handled his difficult part with ease and Alf Lane as Denver Dan was one of the best old man characters seen in this city this season. Miss Johnson as Annie Diamond was also exceptionally good. Marjorie Mandeville as a contortionist in a specialty made a great hit with her neat and graceful work and Alf Lane brought down the house with his comic songs.

The Observer force in full enjoyed the performance thanks to Manager Steward of the opera house who so kindly gave each and every one of the force and carrier boys tickets.

WHIST AND FLINCH

Miss Burke entertained a number of lady friends at whist and flinch at Mrs. Wm. Allison's home. Misses Porter, Crawford and Holmes won the honors of the evening. Miss Burke has not been in La Grande circles very long, but during this short period has made many warm friends and last evening she proved a charming hostess to those enjoying her hospitality.
