WINN SAVED AGAIN

Lon Winn made another attempt last night to shirk the responsibilities of life and when this little game was interfered with, he endeavored to butt his head off against the iron bars of his cell. It is all together likely that had his cellmate not taken a hand Winn would have completed his self appointed task of execution. Winn had been placed in jail in order that he might have an opportunity to recover from the effects of his former attempt at a id's eep o f some of the results of a t o free indulgence in nose paint. Yesterday evening he seemed to have recovered his normal condition and Sheriff Pennington was of the opinion that he would soon be able to resume his work. He was therefore placed in a cell connecting with another in which Jack Newbill was confined. Every thing went well until about eleven o'clock when Newbill hearing a disturbance he discovered that Winn had attempted to hang himself with bandages which had been placed around his neck in dressing the wounds caused by his former attempt. Newbill entered Winn's cell and stopped the proceedings. As soon as Winn learned that the hanging was not going to take place he swelled up with indignation and tried to break the side of the jail out with his head. His head got the worst of the deal. Though Newbill did all in his power to, save the jail furniture, Winn succeeded in making several charges at the iron bars. Each time he cut great gashes in his head and splattered the walls and floor with blood. Newbill finally succeeded in subduing the frantic man, but it was with great joy that he welcomed the arrival of Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson when he put in an appearance about five o'clock this morning. Winn's head is frightfully cut up, but Drs. Bacon & Hall who dressed the wounds, do not consider him in a dangerous condition. He will be taken to Salem this evening by Parks, an attendant of the asylum who arrived this morning.

FUNERAL OF MRS. NESSLY

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Nessly who died at Spokane, Tuesday, January 27, was held this afternoon from the Methodist church, Rev. H. H. Mower officiating. A large number of sorrowing friends, whose acquaintance extended over many years were present to pay their last tributes to a dear friend. The pall bearers were John Williamson, Peter Kuhn, Benjamin Grandy and Neri Ackles. The interment took place in the Masonic where her husband is buried.

Mrs. Nessly was born in Ohio in 1822. She was married at that place to Jacob G. Nessly and in 1852 they crossed the plains for Oregon in 1852. They lived for a time in the Willamette valley and at one time Mr. Nessly owned a large tract of land upon which Portland now stands. In 1852 they moved to La Grande and settled on the Nessly homestead just across the river, north of the city, where she resided until two and a half years ago when she moved to Prosser with her son, C. W. Nessly, where she resided up to two weeks before her death when she was taken to Spokane for medical treatment.

Mrs. Nessly leaves five sons—Milford Nessly of Portland, John and Homer of Post Falls, Idaho; Frank of Walla Walla, and Charles W. of Prosser. She leaves three daughters—Mrs. Watts of Seaposse, Oregon; Mrs. Proebstel of La Grande, and Mrs. Beckwith of Mayview, Washington.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up toward the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores 25c at Newlin's Drug Store.
