PRESS COMMENTS ON J. H. AITKIN'S CANDIDACY

Is Developing Strength in Western Oregon as Well as in Eastern Oregon.

J. H. Aitkin of this city has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for state treasurer.

Mr. Aitkin has been a resident of this city for the past seventeen years. He is president and manager of the Oregon Commercial Company, one of the largest mercantile concerns in this section of the state; is president of the Bank of Huntington and of the Huntington Lumber Co. lumber manufacturers.

He is vice president of the Oregon Development League, which is doing effective work for the whole state and has always taken a leading part in matters advancing this part of Oregon.

He is the Baker County member of the Republican State Central Committee.

Mr. Aitkin was consecutively elected three terms mayor and two terms treasurer of this city. At present he is a city councilmen and a member of the school board.

He enjoys the confidence of the people of Eastern Oregon and is well and favorably known throughout the entire state.

The republicans will make no mistake in nominating J. H. Aitkin for state treasurer.—Huntington Herald, Huntington (Baker County).

J. H. Aitkin, candidate for the nomination for state treasurer on the republican ticket, is one of the best known in Oregon.

He has been prominent in the public life for many years and during that time has traveled extensively over the state. He is considered to be one of the strongest men on the state ticket today, and being an Eastern Oregon man, his strength in this section is not questioned.

He is also very strong in Portland and the valley and his friends who are working for him predict that he will come out with a big majority.—Baker City Herald, Daily Baker County.

John H. Aitkin of Auntington, has announced his candidacy for the nomination for state treasurer on the Republican ticket. This section of Oregon is entitled to recognition on the state ticket and no better selection could be made for this important office.

Mr. Aitkin came to Oregon in 1888 and associated himself with the Oregon Commercial Company of Huntington and is president of that company and is also president of the bank of Huntington. He is vice president of the Oregon Development League of Baker County and member of the republican state central committee. No man in Eastern Oregon is held in higher esteem than John H. Aitkin, and his friends who are legions will do every thing possible to secure his nomination.—Ontario Argus, Malheur County.

We believe the above comment of Colonel Aitkin's candidacy for state treasurer voices the sentiment of the whole of Eastern Oregon. The News is not a partisan paper, but it believes in selecting honorable and efficient men to office. Such we believe J. H. Aitkin to be.—Eagle Valley News, Baker County.

JOHN H. AITKIN, Huntington, Oregon.

General John H. Aitkin of Huntington president of a large mercantile company and a man well known all over the state has decided to become a candidate for state treasurer.

It is understood that State Treasurer Moore, under the constitution, cannot be a candidate for the office again, or there would be a strong desire to continue him in that office.

It is also understood that in the general distribution for the ticket Eastern Oregon has a strong claim upon this place, and will probably get the office upon geographical grounds.

So it is fortunate for the party and the people in general that a strong and clean man like General Aitkin has come out of it. He is well known in Portland, and in Eastern Oregon will have a large vote.

He will probably be the only Eastern Oregon man to come out after this office and can be heartily recommended to the people of Western Oregon for his high character as a man, and his high standing in business circles.—Daily Capital Journal Salem, Marion County.

A. C. Jennings, of Eugene has announced his candidacy for the office of state treasurer, and John H. Aitkin, of Huntington has also slied his castor in the ring. It will probably go to an Eastern Oregon man.—Ashland Tribune, Jackson county.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

Frank T. Wrightman, candidate for the republican nomination for secretary of state, is the present corporation clerk in the secretary of state's office. When the new corporation tax law was passed three years ago, Mr. Wrightman was appointed to take charge of the duties of that department in the secretary of state's office and has made an excellent record, receiving only praise for the manner in which he arranged his work and the courteous treatment which he gave all persons who found it necessary to call upon or address him. He is also familiar with the other duties of the secretary of state and without question is well qualified for the office.

Mr. Wrightman is an Oregonian. He is president of the Marion County Bar Association. For eight years he served as deputy sheriff of Marion county, and two years as sheriff. He is one of the most popular young men of Willamette valley, and has a large number of friends in Eastern Oregon.

NOTICE TO BRIDGE BUILDERS

Sealed bids will be received by the county courts of Union and Wallowa counties of Oregon, up to noon, February 7, 1906, for the construction of a bridge across the Wallowa river, according to plans and specifications on file in the Clerk's office of each of said counties.

Bids for the abutments and approaches must be separate from the bridge proper.

Certified checks for 20% of the amount of the bid must accompany the same, as a guaranty that a contract and bond will be entered into to build said bridge, or abutment and approaches as the case may be, according to said plans and specifications.

Said courts reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

J. B. GILHAM
County Clerk of Union county, Oregon.

SCROFULA AN AWFUL INHERITANCE

While it is true that Scrofula may be acquired under certain conditions, it is usually inherited. Parents who are related by the ties of blood, or who have a consumptive tendency, or family blood taint of any character, are sure to transmit it to their children in the form of Scrofula. Swollen glands, brittle bones, poor digestion, weak eyes, Catarrh, emaciated bodies and general weak constitutions are the principal ways in which the disease is manifested. The blood has been diseased from birth, and being in this condition cannot properly nourish the body and Scrofula is the result. A hereditary disease like this can only be reached, by a constitutional remedy and nothing equals S. S. S. as a cure for it. It cleanses and strengthens the deteriorated blood, drives out all scrofulous and tubercular deposits, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. S. S. S. supplies to the anaemic, lifeless blood the properties necessary to build back to strong, robust health, and does this gently and so thoroughly that no signs of the disease are ever seen in after life. Being purely vegetable S. S. S. is the best remedy for Scrofula; its harmless but healing ingredients enter into the circulation and replace wax-like, bloodless faces with vigorous strength glowing with health. Book with information about Scrofula and medical advice free.

I inherited Scrofula, and about seven years ago suffered intensely from it. Tried every doctor available at great expense, but grew rapidly worse; in fact, had given up all hope of being cured, and as a dying man will grasp at a straw, I was persuaded by my brother, much against my will, to try S. S. S. After taking six bottles, I felt a wonderful change for the better. I continued to take it for about six months, taking in all about fifteen bottles, which entirely cured me.

MILK TALK No. 2.

CLEANLINESS

As milk is the natural food for the young, containing within itself all the requirements of the body, and as any adulteration is injurious to the system, (either from absorption or otherwise) therefore the health of the consumer, and especially, the young, depends to a great extent upon those who handle the milk. And as there are so many ways in handling the cow as well as the milk after being drawn from the cow. Every consumer should visit the place from whence he gets his milk (no matter if it is surrounded by a high board fence) and see how the cow and the milk are handled before using it as a food for the baby.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up toward the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at Newlin's Drug Store.
