W. A. Hillis, representing the Peters Cartridge Co., gave a free exhibition of fancy and expert rifle shooting. A number of gun enthusiasts attended his exhibition and were clearly well repaid for the time. Mr. Hillis is an expert with the rifle, performing feats which would be impossible to one not an expert.

SOCIETY

* WEDDING RECEPTION

A pretty wedding reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stoddard, who were recently married in Salt Lake City, by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Nibley, parents of the bride. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ferrin, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Christofferson, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bramwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas, Mesdames N. W. Schofield, H. P. Pidcock and George Stoddard, Misses Maud Schofield and Minnie Lindsey.

"AT HOME"

Yesterday afternoon about forty ladies were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. J. Carr on 2d street. Cards furnished amusement for the guests, Mrs. Cavanaugh winning first honors, "Yolando," one of Charles Major's latest books, and Mrs. Guling second, an etching in brown. At four o'clock the rooms were darkened, and the glow from softly shaded lights gave a very pleasing effect.

Refreshments were then daintily served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Carmen Stoddard and Lillian McCall, the menu consisting of three courses as follows:

Fruit salad Nut bread sandwiches
Coup Jack Five Spots
Black Coffee

While no distinct color scheme was closely adhered to, the decorations of pale pink and green lent an added charm to the artistic arrangement. After congratulations were extended to their charming hostess upon the success of her "At home," the guests departed.

Mrs. Wesley Harrison gave a pretty little party for Miss Hillary of Portland, last evening at her pleasant home on Fourth street. Progressive flinch was the amusement for the evening. Miss Hillary who has been visiting friends for the past few weeks will return to her home tomorrow evening.

The Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. Condit yesterday afternoon.

MEXICAN COTTON

Although boasting a warm climate and a near neighbor to Texas, Mexico does not raise enough cotton to supply her own mills. The Mexican crop in 1904 was slightly under 100,000 bales. The United States supplies the deficiency for Mexican spinners.
