Members and friends of Rebecca Lodge were royally entertained in their pretty lodge rooms on Adams Ave last evening. Various games were played, music, solos and readings were enjoyed.

HEARTS

Every one enjoys a valentine party and last evening was no exception when Miss Bess Bohnenkamp and Lillian McCall entertained the 401 club. In the hunt for hidden hearts, Mr. MacLennan was most successful and was awarded with a heart-shaped candy box filled with "Selder's Best." After an amusing half hour with picturesque valentines all joined in the ever entertaining game of whist. Miss Mabel Williams and Mr. Jess Paul winning honors. At 10:30 a dainty luncheon was served in the dining room which was profusely decorated with hearts. The piano solo by Miss Gertrude Biever, and the vocal solos by Mr. Tom Williams and Mr. Edwards and readings by Miss Paul were highly appreciated.

WOODSON GRAY PARDONED

Woodson Gray, who, after having served two years in the state penitentiary for the murder of Arthur Halgarth near Elgin, has been pardoned by the governor. He arrived home on this morning's train. At the time he entered upon his term of service, a strong petition was sent to the governor asking immediate pardon, but he deferred action until this week.

JUDGES AND CLERKS

The county board, consisting of Judge Harrison, Commissioners Blumenstein and Selders, is in session today going over the subject of appointing the judges and clerks of the primary and general election.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Last night another good audience listened to Evangelist Handsaker's able discourse upon "The Wonderful Book." The listeners were well repaid for their time. Tonight the theme is "Turning the world upside down to get it right side up." On account of the Glee Club's program, the preaching service will close at 8:30 and the audience allowed to go before the baptismal service.
