FRED W. MULKEY WANTS TO BE OREGON'S SENATOR

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for U.S. Senator for the Short Term.

Fred W. Mulkey was born in Portland, Oregon, and is a resident of his native city. He is a young man with every accomplishment which should qualify him for this high office. He is a graduate of the State University of Oregon, the New York Law School of New York City, and is a lawyer of high standing, a man who has traveled extensively in our own country as well as abroad. He has studied our institutions and compared them with foreign countries. He is a logical thinker, forceful speaker and an adept parliamentarian. He has many friends, both rich and poor, for he is a courteous gentleman at all times.

He is a Republican always. He has supported all the nominees of the Republican ticket at all times. He is as loyal to his party as to his friends. He has confidence in the people and is willing to abide by their decision at the primary election.

Oregon needs such men as Fred W. Mulkey. The Republican party needs such men, and the voters should see that such men are nominated and elected.

STRAY THOUGHTS

The best way to get criticised is to seek to avoid it.

Those who suffer the least have the most time to complain.

Some people get a deal of pleasure out of denying themselves pleasure.

The evil that a bad man or woman may do, is only limited by their general health, strength and longevity.

Wise men weigh their words well that they may not fall short or be found wanting when once uttered.

A crank is one who feels he can never rest, until he has made the rest of mankind like himself.

Be honest with yourself and it will be easy to be honest with others.

There are people, who have the highest regard for their own opinions, because they themselves have formed them.

That home where children are foolishly trained, is a fool factory.

Those people who are ever ready with "I told you so" are generally the least knowing.

If all the frivolities of the world were ended, more than half the population would find themselves out of employment.

Some people go through this world with their eyes shut, and only open them in time to be fagged to death.

DOINGS IN RABBITVILLE

"Pop," said one of the Bunco kids to old man Bunco, "be you afeard of elephants?" "No," said Bunco. "Lions?" "No." "Tigers?" "No." "Rhinoceroses?" "No." "Goats?" "No." "Haint you 'traid of anything but jist maw?" And as the kid dodged one of the Bunco boots something happened. When Bunco recovered consciousness he looked as if he had been hit with the pyle driver, but he had only been swatted on the pate by a framed motto, "God bless our home" wielded by the loving hand of Mrs. Bunco.

The Bumblebee aint yet began to gether hunney, for my pardner he aint bought the tpe and things, and I jist dono what to make out of it. I aint hero from him sence he left with the boodle sewed up in his jeans, so I went way down to Portland to see about it. Mr. Ball, the affable jent what makes all the tpe, he said as how mebbe the feller had got helt up and robbed, and I said as mebbe old John Barleycorn had taken a fall out of him, but Ball sed that was onpossible for in all his experiments with printers he never knowed or even herd of one tastin a drop of likker. (Which made me think about old Irrigator Bennett with his peachblow nose, his breth liable to catch fire at anny minnit, and his unquenched and unquenchable thirst. He aint a printer but only a eddittur, God save the mark!) Anyhow I gess I have been buncoed, and to think of a wise jent like I be havin my eyes shet up by a cuss like that! It is to weay! But never mind, you cant keep the Bumblebee from bornin, and holey smoke what a stinger it will have! And it will sting on vital arts, too. I bet old man Bennet wont set down for a month when it gits after him, unless he k's soles his pants with biler iron, (Mebbe that will bring that 560!)

We gess our deaf and dumb barber has gone to the lake. Anyhow we hope so. We hope he is smokin and sizzlin, spittin sulfur and coain up brimstone and gaud, roddeed by hot picaforks, and skewered by red hot picket pins, in a place where a pound of ice would be worth 2 tons of gold and where a palm leaf fan would be if more avail nor all the jems and precious stones in Solomon's crown, and where six asbestos overcoats would make their owner richer nor any skinkidate that ever skinned, for the Hot Lake we mean is in a place vulgarly called hell.

OUR GROCERIES GO FAST.

That doesn't mean only that we have a quick delivery system, but that they're in such demand that they don't remain in the store any length of time. That's the reason our stock is always fresh; that's the reason we can afford to sell low. The "nimble sixpence" brings us profits often, so we can afford to share them with our customers. Are you one? If not, we'd like you to be.
