GRAND JURY'S REPORT

The OBSERVER believes in suggestion made by the Union county grand jury that this county give more practical heed to the importance of better common roads in this county; and that as practical assistance in that line, the county purchase some rock crushers and road rollers. Each business man and farmer by a little figuring on everyday facts can demonstrate that the want of better common roads in this county, while a great inconvenience and heavy expense to and upon the people within our borders it also keeps out immigrants. A look beyond our own borders will satisfy any one who will take the trouble to take it, that no advertisement of the natural advantages this county possesses will attract immigration equal to a disposition manifested by the present population to construct and have good roads.

Men in seeking locations in a county which has been settled as long as Union county, pay as much attention to the character of the people that are to be their future neighbors, for energy and public spirit as they do to the soil and climate, and hesitate to move their families among a population that seems to take little interest in public improvements.

It is an unpleasant concession to make but a fact borne out by statistics that population is coming to Oregon more slowly than to our neighboring states, though as for soil and climate Oregon is the peer of any of the newer states. A comparison between Oregon and Washington should set our people to thinking.

The state of Washington has an area of land surface of 66,880 square miles and in 1870 had a population of 25,955, and in 1900 there were 518,103 in that state. In 1870 Washington had 4 of a person to the square mile and in 1900 there were 7.7 persons to the square mile, a gain in population to the square mile of 7.3 persons in the thirty years.

Oregon had a land surface of 94,560 square miles in 1870 and then had 1 person to the square mile, and in 1900 there were 4.4 persons to the square mile and in all 413,526 people, a gain of 3.4 per square mile in thirty years.

In 1870 the density of population in the whole of the United States was 13.3 persons to the square mile and in 1900 it was 25.6 a gain per square mile of 12.3 persons in the thirty years. Oregon is not keeping step. It is time to wake up.

La Grande is today building the foundation for her future growth. We have opportunities that are now before us that may not always exist. We need more payrolls and by going out after them, they can be had. There are certain industries that can be developed on a very large scale which will give employment to one or two hundred or three hundred men. We have raw material and everything east of us is our market. We refer to a large sash and door factory. La Grande could secure such an industry if we took the proper steps to secure it.

THE PRIMARY LAW

There seems to be a disposition on the part of some Republicans to circumvent, if possible, the primary election law. It is no use to try, brethren, the primary election law has come to stay, and you have to take your medicine. Of course it is hard on a few, those of you who could sit in your office and drop a note to Tom, Dick and Harry. "You must bring your delegation down to the convention for Bill Jones for representative, Tom Jones for clerk, Dick Jones for county judge; and say if you think Abe Lincum is going to kick on your naming the delegation tell him that I have things fixed with Bob so that he will get to be supervisor; and, say, I believe I owe you $50 on that last timber deal. Enclosed find check for $15, will pay you balance when I see you at the convention," and run things, you can do so no more. We feel sorry for you, and for the whole Jones family, but rejoice that the people have at last come into their own, and will on y have to vote for such yellow dogs as they may see fit to name.—Seaside Signal

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol
