BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

(BY JULIA WARD HOWE)

My eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword,
His truth is marching on.

Chorus:
Glory! glory! Hallelujah! Glory! glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! glory! Hallelujah! His truth is marching on.

I have seen him in the watch-towers of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read his righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps,
His day is marching on.

I have read a fiery gospel, writ in burnished rows of steel;
"As ye deal with my contemners, so with you my grace shall deal;
Let the hero, born of woman, crush the serpent with his heel,
Since God is marching on."

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before his judgment seat;
Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer him; be jubilant, my feet;
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies, Christ was born across the sea;
With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me;
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
While God is marching on.

THE GRANDEST OF ALL

One hundred seventy four years ago today George Washington was born in Westmoreland county Virginia, a then colony belonging to England. The condition of the world was then vastly different than now. The earth's surface had been parceled out as a heritage among a lot of successful warriors and diplomats. The people as mere incidents to the soil were ruled by the kings by a right, which they called divine, to dispute which was treason punishable with death. What education the common people got was based on the idea that man's first duty was to render without question obedience to their sovereigns. The literature of the age ignored the rights of man to a voice in the government that demanded his obedience; the colleges and great universities taught the doctrine of man's insignificance and incompetency. It was in the backwoods of North America the first successful revolt was raised against the divine rights of kings and this was led to success by a "buckskin colonel" whose ancestors for three quarters of a century had dwelt in backwoods of America. The world today honors that backwoods colonel and a nation of 84,000,000 free people defy all history to produce a grander character than George Washington.

TO CARRY OUR GOODS

The Oregonian of Monday gives a list of five ocean going ships at the wharves at Portland loading with cargoes for distant lands. All these ships are owned by foreigners, two float under the flag of England, one under the Italian, one the flag of Norway, and one the French. These ships have a total grain tonnage of 8,707. At that date there was not a single ship under the American flag loading or awaiting for cargo in the port of Portland.

On the same day, Feb. 19, there were fifteen ocean ships enroute to Portland Oregon from foreign ports with cargoes for that port and for return cargoes. These 15 ships all sail under foreign flags, and have an aggregate grain tonnage of 27,793 and there was not one ship under the American flag listed for Portland for cargo to foreign ports. Of the 15 foreign ships enroute for Portland 6 were under the English flag, 7 under the French flag, 1 under the German and 1 under the Italian flag.

For the ten months ending with October 1905 American steam ships carried from our ports to foreign land domestic merchandise valued at $105,803,266. For the same ten months American sailing ships carried from our ports domestic merchandise valued at $7,524,389 making our total exports of domestic merchandise for the ten months that was borne away under the United States flag foot up $113,327,655 worth of stuff.

During the ten months ending with October 1905, the exports of domestic merchandise from the United States in foreign steam ships were valued at $961,962,644, and those carried by foreign sailing ships were valued at $20,913,273 making the total of our foreign exports of domestic merchandise that were carried, during the ten months, to foreign countries in foreign owned ships foot up $982,875,917.

Should congress devise some way whereby our foreign trade would go and come under our own flag, and the freight money we pay would go to our own people we can exclaim with the poet.

"Our tyrants then
At least will be our countrymen."

Our delivery service is for the benefit of all. Don't hesitate to use it.
