FALSE ALARM

A little excitement was caused this afternoon by the announcement that a fire was raging in the Old Town. The entire department and the rest of the town turned out but after making a careful investigation, no fire was discovered. Several of the leading citizens of the Old Town were interviewed regarding the presence of a great conflagration, but they had noticed nothing of the kind, and the populace returned to their homes and the simple life. There was nothing doing.

AMUSEMENTS

"HOOLIGAN IN NEW YORK"

A feature in which the management of "Hooligan in New York" takes great pride is the number of high-class specialties to be seen in the proeuction. The stereotyped song and dance and the "coon" song with the chestnut. flavor with which a long-suffering public has been inflicted so often are tabooed. There is dancing, plenty of it, but it's different. The Marion Sisters, who are with the company, wear gold medals which they won in a contest at Tony Pastor's theatre for novelty dancers over all competitors. Forty-two teams were in the contest and the Misses Marion were unanimously awarded the prize. They will positively appear with "Hooligan in New York" at Steward's Opera House Feb. 27.

TWO MORE CANDIDATES

Yesterday evening Fred D. Gaskell filed his declaration to become a candidate before the Democratic primaries for the office of sheriff, and John T. Galloway of Elgin filed his declaration for commissioner before the Republican primaries.

THE REVIVAL

Last evening in spite of the rain, the audience room of Central church was filled. The attention to the sermon was splendid and at the close two ladies came forward, one to unite with the congregation, having recently become a Christian in Elgin, the other to confess Christ. Great interest is manifest and many more are expected to obey Christ soon. In fact there seems nothing to hinder the Central from enjoying one of the greatest meetings ever held in Oregon. Mr. Handsaker's preaching is clear and direct with nothing of the shoddy sensational in it. the church is united and harmonidus, and is standing loyally by the regular preacher and the evangelist, and a fine corps of personal workers are in line to win souls. These all count and so does the respect in which the church is held in La Grande. Best of all the preachers and people are trusting God for the harvest. Great things are at hand for the cause of Christ and for this church.
