B. P. O. E. FESTIVAL

La Grande Lodge No. 455, B. P. O. E. held its splendid annual ball last evening at the Commercial Club hall. As is usual, the many guests this morning testify that it was one of the most pleasing affairs in the history of Terpsichore in La Grande. The hall was beautifully decorated with the colors of the order and mounted elk's antlers. Besides the many members, their wives, daughters and sweethearts of this city who attended, there were many from Elgin and other out of town points.

At the usual hour the ball began to the sweet strains of music from one of the largest and finest orchestras ever assembled in the city. The members were: Ed Thomas, first violin; E. Kerburz, second violin; Mr. Hart, Hilgard, tuba; J. G. Snodgrass, first clarinet; H. Helfrick, second clarinet; G. E. McCully, first cornet; Frank Leavitt, trombone; Al Heisner drums; J. D. Haines, bass viol.

After dancing until weary, the guests visited the spacious dining room of the Hotel Folty where a sumptuous repast was deftly served. The following is the menu for the evening.

MENU
Olympia Oyster stew Toke Points
Queen Olives Dill Pickles Celery
Chicken Lobster Fruit Salad
Young Turkey Cranberry Jelly
Sliced Sugar Cured Ham
Pickled Tongue
Cheese Straws Hot House Tomatoes
Cakes
Fruit Angel Fig Chocolate Nut
Brick Ice Cream Assorted Fruit
Wine
Zinfandel Burgundy Reisling
Iced Beer
Tea Coffee Royal

During the banquet, F. S. Ivanhoe called upon C. E. Cochran of Union, to respond to the toast, "The B. P. O. E." which he did in the affable manner usual to this scholarly gentleman.

E. V. Carter of Ashland, responded to "The Ladies." He has made many friends today among the fair sex as a result of his neat response.

E. W. Bartlett responded to "Our President." A subject of such interest could not have fallen into better hands and Mr. Bartlett was roundly cheered when he finished.

The closing toast was responded to by W. B. Sargent, on "Our Visitors." There were many such visitors present who felt greatly complimented by Mr. Sargent's succinct remarks.

At a late hour the guests retired from the dining room, feeling that such events occur far too infrequently and with the feeling that another February 22d will be welcomed with pleasure if it holds in store for them what this one did.

LOCAL ITEMS

Miss Kern of Wallowa has been engaged to teach the Moss Chapel school. The Commercial Club dances will hereafter be held on Saturday evening instead of Fridays. Do not forget.

The Junior League of the Methodist church will give a social tonight at the church. Refreshments will be served and a program given. The Adams sisters will be present to assist in the entertainment.

Lou E. Wenham returned this morning from Pullman where he went to purchase the Pullman Tribune. He will return to Pullman to take charge as soon as he can arrange his business affairs at this place.

Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe returned last evening from Wallowa county points. The Colonel reports that he found political conditions there very satisfactory, so far as he is concerned. While not inclined to be over sanguine he feels that his opponents will realize that he has been an aspirant for the office of district attorney.

Among those who came up from Elgin last night to attend the Elks ball were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thorson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brown, Mrs. Chas. Hug, Charley Halgarth and Henry Bader.

TO THINK ABOUT

It may be that this is at variance with your previous knowledge of Osteopathy—that you have only heard of it as being a good thing in certain chronic ailments. Yet any physician, of whatever school, is more certain, everything else being equal, of scoring success in a new and acute case than in an old and chronic one.

It is a fact, of course, that Osteopathy has won most of its laurels in curing old cases for which other systems no longer held out any hope. At first it was only such cases that ever came to the Osteopath; and success has brought so many of these cases to him that he is often unable to devote as much time as he wishes to the treatment of acute troubles.

AMUSEMENTS

HAPPY

One of the coming attractions at Steward's Opera House for one night only Feb. 27 is Frazee & Browne's big sensational comedy drama, "Hooligan in New York" with J. L. McCabe as "Happy Hooligan." The play is filled with thrilling situations and plenty of good comedy. Mr. McCabe himself, is extremely funny, and has the enthusiastic support of an energetic company.

SCHOOL EXERCISES

Public exercises were held throughout the city today in the public schools in commemoration of Washington's birthday. Patriotic drills, songs, dialogues and recitations by bright eyed boys and girls were an inspiration that cannot but help to strengthen the principles of liberty and justice. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. marched in a body to the High School auditorium. There were also many parents present. La Grande is loyal to the public schools.

KNOWN HERE

Dan Shea, baseball player, is defendant in a suit for a divorce instituted by Venera Shea yesterday in the State Circuit Court in Multnomah county. The couple were married in Portland December 15, 1905, and the plaintiff's maiden name was Marino. She charges her husband with cruel treatment, and alleges among other things, that while she was suffering with rheumatism he compelled her to get out of bed and cook his meals and threatened to beat her if she refused, and also neglected to get a doctor to treat her. Shea is now employed as a bartender.

SOCIETY

PLEASANT SURPRISE

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thomas, who are soon to leave for Mexico, were pleasantly surprised last evening by the members of the A. E. S. L. and their families. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and merry games were played. Mr. Thomas gave a very interesting account of his recent trip to old Mexico which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Several well filled baskets and coffee helped to make the occasion one to be remembered. The members departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Thomas a pleasant journey and good luck and success in their future home. Mrs. Thomas has been one of the charter members of the above league and honored by all and the members regret very much to be deprived of her future society. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and their little daughter Frances will be greatly missed by their many friends and neighbors.

The High Five club was entertained by Mesdames L. D. Reavis and Bert Pattison yesterday afternoon at the latter's home. As usual the afternoon was full of merriment.
