SLAVE GIRLS TRIAL

(Scripps News Association)
New York, Feb. 26—Bertha Glache, the slave girl who is accused with killing her former owner, was tried this morning. A jury has been secured, and is now being addressed by the prosecuting attorney who is outlining his case. The court room is crowded, more than half the spectators being women. Public opinion is decidedly in favor of the defendant.

GRAIN MARKETS

(Scripps News Association)
Chicago, Feb. 26—Wheat opened at 82½; closed 81 1-8; corn opened at 43½; closed 43¼; oats opened 30½; closed 30¼.

WHAT WILL WE DO?

Well, what are we going to do about it? Watch the crowds of homesekers go by or make an effort to secure our portion of them. The railroads estimate that during the year they will bring to this coast 25,000 people.

PRUNING TOOLS

Now is the time to prune your orchard. If you need any new pruning shears, saw or knives, call and examine my complete line of such goods, you will find just what you want. Also see my assortment of fine China in hand painted, decorated and plain, any kind you want. Do not forget about my cut glass and silverware.

EMPRESS ILL

(Scripps News Association)
Berlin, Feb. 26—It is officially announced that the Empress is ill and will be unable to attend the state entri this afternoon, of the Duchess Sophie Charlotte, who is to be married to Prince Eitel, tomorrow. Sophie's entry was made with all the pomp and ceremony customary when brides enter the Hohenzollern family. She was drawn in the coach formerly used by Frederick the Great, which was attached eight fine prancing black horses. After the ceremony at the imperial palace the marriage contract was signed. Sophie is a stately blond aged 27.

MEMORY SHORT

(Scripps News Association)
Chicago, Ill., Feb. 26—Commissioner Garfield was cross-examined on the stand in the packers' case this morning, but he could not remember just what language he used in the interviews preliminary to the instituting proceedings.

INTEREST CONTINUES

The meetings of the Central Church of Christ continue with crowded houses. The results thus far have been 14 additions to the church. The subject tonight will be "Conversion."

SOCIETY

DAMEN-KRANZ

Misses Gertrude Mitchell and Mertie Aldrich proved the most charming of hostesses Saturday evening when the Damen Kranz was entertained at the former's home. As the date was near the memorable twenty-second, the evening was altogether patriotic, enhanced with an artistic arrangement of our beloved stars and stripes. Before "Good-nights" were said, all joined in singing "America," "Red, White and Blue," and others suitable for the occasion.
