I desire to inform the public that I have opened a tailoring establishment in the McKennon building, where I would be pleased to meet my friends and the public generally. My five year's experience in the city has been such that to many of the readers of the Observer I need no introduction, to others I only ask a trial order.

AMUSEMENTS

Scene in "A Fight for Millions" at Stewards Opera House Thursday Evening

Scene in "Human Hearts" at Steward's Opera House, Tuesday March 6

The Russell-Drew company will play a three night's engagement at Steward's opera house starting Thursday, March 1.

The organization is one of the few legitimate companies playing the Northwest and recognized as one of the best, containing several artists of known ability.

Mr. Percy Hunting is well known throughout the country where he has essayed such difficult roles as "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde in the well known play of that name. Mr. Hunting has also received some very flattering press notices on his rendition of Cardinal Richelieu. Among the other members of the company are Charles Mortimer, George Materson, David Williams, Miss Moisie Campion, Nellie Gurin and Clara Hamner. The balance of the company are thoroughly capable and up to the standard set by the management.

The prices of this engagement will be 20, 30 and 50 cents. Seats may be reserved without extra charge at Van Buren's

"HUMAN HEARTS"
With all the hue and cry about the immorality of the stage, certain plays of the type of The Old Homestead, Shore Acres, "Human Hearts," etc. continue to grow in popularity. Instead of receiving adverse criticisms from the pulpit, the management of "Human Hearts" continually receives letters from the leading clergymen throughout the country, praising it for its heart interest and the beautiful moral story it tells, making an evening well spent for all who see it. The old adage that "a good man should marry none but a good woman," was never more truly illustrated in fiction than in "Human Hearts." No dramatic author has ever given to the stage a more idyllic character than Tom Logan, a big, wholesome son of the soil, one of "nature's own noblemen" who has fallen into the snare of a city adventuress and is only saved from ruin and destruction through the prayers of a loving mother, a little child, and the love of a pure, innocent girl, the sweetheart of his boyhood days. "Human Hearts" will be the attraction at Steward's opera house Tuesday, March 6.

Our delivery service is for the benefit of all. Don't hesitate to use it.

BRIGHT FOR AITKIN

Col. J. H. Aitkin, of Huntington, candidate on the Republican ticket for the nomination for state treasurer, arrived in Baker City this morning for a short stay on business and politics combined. Speaking of his candidacy Mr. Aitkin said that it looked very bright. He has friends all over the state who are working earnestly in his behalf and being a man with a clean political record he is making great progress. Mr. Aitkin has never been identified with any political machines or combinations in Oregon and for that reason his candidacy meets with favor from a large majority of the voters who believe in a new deal. Mr. Aitkin leaves tonight for Portland to take up his campaign canvass.—Baker City Herald

The Sweetmeats of Literature—old familiar friends, coming back to you in THE SCRAP BOOK—poems, anecdotes, declamations, humorous stories and humorous bits; pathetic stories too, half-forgotten hymns, lost facts, quaint and curious things, absorbing incidents, jokes, satires, and stories that once set your youthful fancies ablaze and opened up the big world to your vision—all these and a thousand things more are in THE SCRAP BOOK.

It is such a treasure-house of new things, and of old things collected from the archives of the century, as has never before been gathered together or even dreamed of.

THE SCRAP BOOK is the hit of the century in magazine making.
