AMUSEMENTS

ALBERTA GALLATIN

In "Cousin Kate" at Steward's Opera House Wednesday, March 14.

WEST BIG JUBILEE MINSTRELS.
The distinguished singer, Spencer Kelly, whose ballad selections have added in no small measure to the musical fame of the William H. West Big Jubilee Minstrels, continued as one of the conspicuous members of this notable organization and according to reliable reports his admirable voice power being exceptionally well seconded this season by a crop of vocalists, who are more than help sustain the reputation of the celebrated West trade mark. Those who propose to attend the entertainment scheduled for Steward's opera house Saturday March 10 will in all probability find even something else besides a wonderfully pleasing musical treat, for according to authentic information the program to be presented includes nothing short of genuine force and novelty innovations, all of which Manager Ricaby offers under his personal guarantee.

THE MOONSHINER'S DAUGHTER
Among the attractions billed for presentation in the near future is the "Moonshiner's Daughter," will be given at Steward's opera house, Tuesday, March 15. The play is recognized as one of the very best melodramas now on the road and has been playing to capacity business for the past four seasons. "The Moonshiner's Daughter" is a realistic presentation of the doings and dangers of locating and destroying illicit stills by the revenue men in the mountain districts of Kentucky and Tennessee, containing a story of heroism and a recital of brave deeds, and exhibitions of recklessness, courage and cool nerve of the Moonshiners. A romantic love story prevails throughout and is so cleverly combined with the sensational features that the truly dramatic result is attained. There are four acts and eight scenes and each is equipped with a scenic environment from the studios of Harry J. Buhler and W. Fletcher Mann. Plenty of happy fun throughout furnish smiles that won't come off. Specialties throughout, portrayed by a cast that have won distinction in other prominent productions.

A MODERN MIRACLE

"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. R. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn. "she was so wasted by coughing up pus from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched by her bed-side forty-eight hours; when, at my urgent request Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, and with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman today." 50¢ and $1.00 at NEWLIN DRUG CO. Trial bottle free.

Kane Shipman and Colvin who sent us "When Knighthood was in Flower" present Alberta Gallatin in Cousin Kate at Steward's opera house Wednesday March 14th.

In "Cousin Kate" Alberta Gallatin has found a worthy vehicle for her unlimited talent and ability. It is without a doubt the prettiest and cleverest society comedy ever put on, and when it opened the great Hudson Theatre in New York was accorded an almost overwhelmingly gratifying reception, running for a season there and also for one in London. Though pure comedy, of the kind only conceived by dramatists once in many years, yet it affords Miss Gallatin ample opportunity for a display of her ability as an emotional actress, in which line of work, especially by her work in Ibsens "Ghosts" she has made herself famous.

The Pendleton's basket ball team will arrive here tonight on this evening's train so that the game will not begin until nine o'clock, but any one who waits until that hour to come need not to expect to get a seat for the crowd that will probably be there will have taken all the seats by that time.

Hoffman, who played forward for The Dalles college, the best on the coast, for several seasons will play forward on the Pendleton team. He will probably try to give the La Grande fans an exhibition of fancy goal throwing.

The other players are less well known. The La Grande team has had good practice for a week past and have developed some fast team work.

The team which will line up will be as follows: Childers and T. Williams forward; Allstott, center; Dunn and Zundel guards; Falk and McKennon, subs.

Sherwood Williams cannot enter the game because of a sprained ankle. The game will be given at 9 o'clock remember. The price will be 25¢ for every body and the game will be a good one.
