ORDINANCE NO 323 Series 1906

An Ordinance licensing and regulating the business and calling of selling merchandise at public auction, and of auctioneers.

The city of La Grande does ordain as follows:—

Section 1—No person, firm or corporation shall be engaged in, carry on or conduct the sale of any merchandise, at public auction, or by public out-cry, either as an auctioneer, or as the owner or occupant of the place or premises where such merchandise is so offered for sale, at any place within the city of La Grande, Oregon, without first having obtained a license therefor, as provided in this ordinance.

Section 2—Every person, firm or corporation desiring to sell merchandise within La Grande, Oregon, by auction, whether such merchandise shall be the property of the seller, or the property of another, and every person, firm or corporation desiring to engage in the profession or occupation of an auctioneer, either to sell their own merchandise or that of others, within said city, shall first pay to the City Treasurer as said city the sum required by the ordinance to be paid for a license to engage in said profession of auctioneer, or to sell such merchandise by auction or public out-cry; that thereupon such person, firm or corporation, with the receipt of the City Treasurer aforesaid, shall apply to the City Recorder of said city for a license according to the terms of such receipt, whereupon, if such City Recorder shall find that the applicant or applicants, as the case may be, has fully complied with the provisions of this ordinance, he shall issue to such applicant or applicants, such license as such receipt shows them to be entitled to.

Section 3—That every license issued under this ordinance shall set forth the name of the applicant or applicants, and the place where merchandise shall be sold under such license, if the same be given for such purpose; the time said license shall be in force, and any person carrying on the profession of an auctioneer, or, as such offering for sale any merchandise, at public out-cry, or permitting the same to be done at or in his place of business, whether by himself or another, or whether he is the owner of the merchandise offered for sale or not, shall on demand of any city officer, produce such license, and if he fail, refuse or neglect so to do, he may be taken and deemed and convicted for so selling or offering for sale, such merchandise, or for carrying on the profession of an auctioneer.

Section 4—That in any action brought under, or arising out of the provisions of this ordinance, that a party to such action represented himself, herself, or the corporation for which he or they acted, as such auctioneer, or that he, or they, as the case may be, advertised or exhibited any sign calling the attention of others to the fact such party would or did offer for sale at auction, any merchandise, shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence that such party is liable for the payment of such license, or for the violation of this ordinance.

Section 5—That every person offering merchandise of any description, within the city of La Grande, Oregon, for sale at public out-cry, shall be deemed an auctioneer; and every advertisement or sign that and person will offer, at auction or public out-cry, merchandise for sale in said city, shall make the party so offering merchandise for sale, liable for the payment of a license under this ordinance.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF SOUTH LA GRANDE DISTRICT I hereby announce myself as Candidate for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Peace, subject to the primary nominating election to be held April 20th. WM. GRANT.

merchandise for sale, liable for the payment of a license under this ordinance.

Section 6—Auctioneers shall be of two classes, namely, first and second class. The first class shall be those who carry on their business at a designated place, which shall be known and advertised as an auction house, only, which place shall be specified in the license of $1000 per annum, and no license shall be granted to an auctioneer, or for the right to sell merchandise at such a place, for a less time than three months, which license shall be paid in advance in gold coin. The second class shall consist of those who sell and conduct temporary sales, covering less time than three months, at auction or public out-cry, any stock or parts of stock of bankrupt goods, goods damaged for general trade, or general merchandise, or for sales in such manner of gold, silver or plated ware, precious or imitation precious stones, watches, jewelry or other or similar articles, either at retail or in bulk; and auctioneers, or those desiring to sell such merchandise in such manner, either as to time or place, shall pay a license of $25 per day, for each and every day of the continuance of such sale or sales, and no license shall be issued in this class for a less term than 40 days, which license shall be paid in advance in gold coin.

Section 7—No auctioneer, or person selling goods or merchandise at public out-cry, shall ring, or permit to be rung, in, about, in front of the place of sale, or in or upon public streets of the city of La Grande, before, after or during such sale; nor permit, before, during or after such sale, any singing, music, loud noises, or the parading of signs upon vehicles or by persons or otherwise, in, upon or about the place of sale, or in or upon the streets of La Grande, Oregon, unless such auctioneer or person, firm or corporation desiring to sell merchandise at auction or public out-cry shall first obtain a permit from the recorder of the city of La Grande, Oregon, for which permit a fee of $2.50 shall be paid to the treasurer of said city for each person so ringing a bell, singing or playing music for each day so employed.

Section 8—No auctioneer, or person owning or as agent for the owner, shall offer for sale in said city of La Grande, Oregon, any article of merchandise of any character whatever, or any article of either gold, silver, or plated ware, watches, jewelry or precious stones, without stating at the time and when making each sale, in a loud and distinct voice, that the article is sold without any warrant or representation whatever, as to its quality; or, that said article is expressly warranted to be in quality and quantity as represented by the auctioneer.

Section 9—An auctioneer so selling and warranting any merchandise whatever, either for himself or for commission, or as the agent for others, shall retain in his possession the money, or other valuable thing or things received for such merchandise of any description herein mentioned and described, for at least twenty four hours from the time of such sale. And if any purchaser of any article, thing or merchandise of any description as herein mentioned, shall, within twenty four hours make a claim against such auctioneer or person owning or claiming to own such article at the time of sale to such claimant, upon the ground that the article thing or merchandise so sold at auction, was not as represented by the auctioneer, and shall demand of the auctioneer a return of the money or other consideration paid or given therefor, and shall offer to return the article, thing or merchandise so purchased or received, then and in such case, the auctioneer making such sale shall either return said purchaser the purchase price paid therefor, or hold said purchase price received for such article, thing or merchandise at such sale, as a separate and distinct fund to answer and pay any judgment that may be recovered against him by the purchaser of such article, thing or merchandise; provided, that if no action or proceeding be brought against said auctioneer or person offering for sale such article, thing or merchandise, for a period of ten days from and after the date of such sale, such auctioneer shall not be required to keep the purchase price therefor in a separate fund thereafter.

Section 10—If any person, persons, firm or corporation shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, upon proof of such violation, before the city recorder, he, she, they or it shall be fined in a sum not less than $50 or more than $100, or confined in the city jail of the city of La Grande, Oregon, for a period of not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. And in addition to such fine or imprisonment or both, the city recorder shall revoke and annul any license that may have been issued to such person, persons, firm or corporation, and all money paid therefor shall thereby be forfeited as a part of the penalty for the violation of this ordinance.

Section 11—This ordinance shall be published in one issue of the La Grande Evening Observer and will be in full force and effect from and after the 10th day of March, 1906. Passed by the council of the city of La Grande, Oregon, on the 9th day of March 1906, by 5 councilmen voting therefor, and no councilmen voting against the passage thereof.

Approved by the mayor, March 9, 1906. Attest: I. R. SMOOK, City Recorder. L. D. REAVIS, Mayor protem.
