As milk is the natural food for the young, containing within itself all the reguirements of the body, and as any adulteration is injurious to the system, (either from absorption or otherwise) therefore the health of the consumer, and especially, the young, depend to a great extent upon those who handle the milk. And as there are so many ways in handling the cow as well as the milk after being drawn from the cow. Every consumer should visit the place from whence he gets his milk (no matter if it is surrounded by a high board fence) and see how the cow and the milk are handled before using it as a

Where did you get your eyes so blue? Out of the sky as I came through.

What makes the light in them sparkle and spin? Some of the starry spikes let in. Where did you get that little tear? I found it waiting when I got here."

The fact is as sad as it is true that the baby finds the tear waiting to dull its blue eyes, and stain its soft cheeks. At the first it "has no language but a cry." Its one necessity is but to give expression to its suffering, and for that a tear suffices.

Its one necessity is but to give expression to its suffering, and for that a tear suffices.

The mother who stoops in anguish over the wai-ing child would do anything to ease its suffering. But she is helpless. The time when she could have done so much for her child is past. She did not realize that in those anxious nervous days when she shrank from the ordeal of motherhood she was preparing suffering for the baby.

The path of motherhood is soothed and made easy for those who use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives physical bnoyancy and mental brightness. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages a healthy appetite and induces refreshing sleep. It gives the mother strength for her hour of trial, and the confidence and content which come from strength. It makes the birth hour practically painless, and by increasing the natural, food secretions, it enables the healthy mother to enjoy the happiness of nursing her child.

A Mother's Gratitude.

*I would like to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I have received from your wonderful medicine, "Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. H. C. Anderson, of South Britain, New Haven Co., Conn., (Box 35). "During the first month of expectancy I could not keep anything on my stornach. Was as sick that I had to go to bed and stay for weeks. I tried different doctors, but with little benefit. I read about many being helped by using your medicine, so I thought I would give it a trial. I began to take your "Favorite Prescription in November and I had a nice little girl baby in February following. My baby weighted over eight pounds. I was only sick about one hour, and got along nicely afterward; was up and dressed on the cipthh day. I never had the doctor with me at all; just the surse and one or two friends. My friends thought that I was sick a very short time. I think Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription is indeed a true mother's friend, for it betpel me wonderfully. This makes my second child; with the first one I did not take 'Pavorite Prescription.' The little one lived just about two months and she was sick all the time. This last baby is as plump and healthy as any mother could wish."

CURIOUS LIFE STATISTICS.

What Some Things Amount To in the Course of Three-Score Years and Ten.

A Gorman mathematician has been loing a little figuring to demonstrate what the Biblical span of life of three score years and ten really means, and his results are very interesting, says the New York Herald.

Seventy years of life mean 840 months, or 25.550 days, equal to 613,200 hours, or 36.792,000 minutes or 2,207.520. 000 seconds. It shows that a man reach that age has gone to bed 25,350 times, and, excepting childhood, he has breakfasted 25,000 times. as well as lined and supped. Supposing that he ad taken three cups of coffee or tea a ay, once at each meal, he has consumed 5,000 cups of either beverage. If he moked three cigars a day he would have nsumed the enormous quantity of 54. '50 cigars, which at five cents aplecwould mean $2,737.50 went up in smoke if the rate of a pound of ment a day he has eaten 25,000 pounds, or as much as 12 oxen. If he walked a mile a day, omitting, of course, his childhood, he has covered 25,000 miles.

He has taken 735 840,000 breaths, being 1,200 an hour 38,000 a day and 10, 152,000 in a year. The number of the heart beats is still greater. Let us suppose that there were 75 heart beats a minute. This would be 4 500 in an hour 108,000 a day, 39,420,000 a year and 3,759,400,000 for 70 years of life.

And so the statistics could go on ad infinitum, but the figures given will be sufficient to show what a life of 70 years

Jackies Are No Longer the Roysterers That They Were in the Recently sallors by the hundreds from the North Atlantic squadron were given shore leave in New York. and they behaved themselves so well that the New York papers praised them highly. On this the Cleveland Plain Dealer says:

"With the disappearance of the old navy the roystering navy seaman began to disappear also. He survives as an occasional isolated case, but to regard him as typical is to slander the navy. In the short period since the outbreak of the Spanish war the contrast between the new and the old nas become more marked, a result due chiefly to the influx of a new class of recruits, gathered largely from 'he west, Americans with hardly an exception. better educated than the recruits cr former years, with better traditions and, on the whole, perhaps less give-to creating a riot, a rumpus and a row than the more fortunate young men whose fracases on college campuses are now being recorded for the de-lectation of the public. Within a few months reports from Kiel, London and Paris have shown that the American blue-jacket behaves himself auroa as well as at home. The fiction that as is incapable of rational enjoymes. has survived too long."

EXTREMITIES OF THE LAW. Where One Man Was Nabbed for Sitting Still and Another for Moving. Mr. Percival Fitzrusher wore a frown and his automobiling costume when haled into the justice court on a charge of exceeding the speed limit, relates the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. "It's an outrage!" he asserted, vehe mently and repeatedly, but the only friendly giance he got was from Mr Footloose Freddy, who was taking things easy in a swaybacked chair and watching the proceedings with interest. Mr. Footloose Freddy was also under arrest. His case was called first, and he was fined $20 for vagrancy. Then the charge against Mr. Fitzrusher was on and he, being guilty, was also assessed

"It's an outrage, a miserable outrage!" he repeated.

"It is, fer a fact," agreed Footloose

Which gratuitous consolation pleased Mr. Fitzrusher that he paid the fine of Footloose and walked with him from the justice court, continuing his comment upon the outrageousness of the proceedings.

There's no such thing as justice in this community," asserted Mr. Fitz-

"I should say not, pard," agreed Foot loose Freddy. "Why, look. Dey san you for movin' an' me ter stttin' still Where does a man git off?"
