GRANGE HALL NEWS

Blue Mountain Grange No. 345, P. of H. met in regular session, March 7, 1906. After the regular routine of business was finished, a bountiful lunch was served. In the afternoon, the lecturer conducted the program. J. W. McAlister introduced the subject of sowing and growing alfalfa.

The subject was thoroughly discussed by Bros. Jasper, Reynolds, Davis, D. A. McAlister and Huffman, and much valuable information was brought forth. C. D. Huffman suggested that we discuss the subject of cover crops at some future time. Two resolutions were presented for adoption, by J. W. McAlister and W. R. Jasper as follows:

Whereas:—By the Initiative and Referendum law, the Constitution of our state is in danger, from the fact that it may be amended by a petition of 8 per cent of the voters, to place it on the ticket, and then a majority of the votes cast thereon, makes it a law, thereby defeating the very object for which the Constitution was intended. Therefore, be it resolved by the Blue Mountain Grange, that we favor a more stringent law in this respect, by requiring 20 per cent of the voters on a petition, to have an amendment put on at the coming election, and then it should receive sixty per cent of the electoral vote.

RESOLUTION NO. 2

Whereas:—In view of the fact that a great burden is placed upon the farmer and other producers, by the crimes committed thro' the use of intoxicating drinks, therefore, be it resolved by Blue Mountain Grange that we favor a heavy state license.

Resolutions unanimously adopted.
 Sec. Blue Mountain Grange No. 345.

WHITNEY AT VALE

J. R. Whitney, who is a candidate to succeed himself for republican nomination as state printer has made an excellent officer. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Whitney and know him to be a man worthy of the office. He is a native Oregonian, a graduate of the University of Oregon, and is an old-timer in the printing business. He is a friend that never overlooks you when you have once taken his hand in a friendly shake. He is a friend to the laborer as well as the merchant, and he is a man such as a free born Westerner likes to meet. He will no doubt be re-nominated and should he be, he will be re-elected. It is usual to give to every state officer a second term when he has made an efficient officer.—Vale Oriano.

HIS CHANCES GOOD

J. H. Aitkin continues to hold a strong grasp on the state treasuryship. Other candidates have appeared but none seem to affect the opinion that the leader hails from Eastern Oregon and that his careful canvass of the state will lose any of its strength and popularity with the voters. The changes for the Huntington man for the nomination and, of course, election is good.—Ea.

NELSON AND TRAFALGAR

(Observer Special)
 London, March 14—There was offered for sale at Christie's today what experts affirm is the original of the memorandum issued by Nelson from the "Victory off Gadiz the 10th of October, 1805." The memorandum is on the method of engaging the French fleet. Various copies of the document exist, of course, but it was not until recently that the public learned of the existence of the original draft, in Nelson's autograph. For years it has been in the possession of a family living not far from Merton Abbey. It is expected to bring a fabulous price. Nine years ago, when the autograph of Nelson's memoir of his birth, life and services, came under the hammer at Sotheby's a dealer bought it for $5,000, and sold it to an American shortly afterward for a much higher price.
