LOCAL ITEMS

Scott Graham of Elgin is in the city. Miss Belle Miller of Joseph is in the city for a few days.

That old ground hog was a wise one this season. W. H. Bently, of Union, is a visitor in La Grande today.

Mrs. A. B. Barnes, of Elgin, is in the city today on a visit to friends.

A. G. Peterson one of the railroad contractors on the Elgin extension is in the city.

F. S. Bramwell left this morning for Union in the interest of the sugar company.

Mrs. Arthur Arnold who has been in the city visiting friends returned to Elgin this morning.

Dan Sommer, the pioneer merchant and banker of Elgin, is a business visitor in our city today.

Archibald Wilson, one of Union's citizens, is a visitor in La Grande today and is registered at the Foley.

W. DeLashmut, a prominent resident of Portland, arrived here on the belated east bound train of last night.

The many friends of Mrs. S. J. White and Mrs. George Henry will be pleased to learn that they are recovering from their recent illness.

Mrs. Quimby and daughter, Carolyn, came up from Portland Monday evening to be with Mrs. Bair, Mrs. Quimby's mother, who is seriously ill.

The farmers of this valley have large quantities of feed and there will practically be no loss of stock as a result of this freak of a cold wave.

Col. F. S. Ivanhoe left last night for Salem to argue the case of the Enterprise Hotel case before the supreme court. He expects to return Friday.

Presiding Elder J. D. Gillilan, who has just closed a very successful series of meetings at Cove, returned home yesterday and will occupy the Methodist pulpit next Sunday.

Michael Kenny one of Moro county's extensive stock raisers is here on business. He states that this storm wave will do some injury among those bands of sheep that have been sheared, but fortunately few have been sheared.

C. I. Flynn, of Baker City, a very prominent member of the Eagles, the manufacturer of the famous Triumph Cigar and a business man of that prosperous city, arrived in La Grande this morning.

Alberta Gallitan, the celebrated actress who is leading woman in "Cousin Kate," arrived here last night and is at the Hotel Sommer. She was accompanied by M. Novross who is also a member of that famous theatrical company.

Neil McLeod of Elgin, the prosecuting attorney general of the U. S. in the valley, arrived here today on a visit to his family. He is out for re-election as representative of Union county.

SOCIETY

The Musicales feels greatly encouraged over results of yesterday's meeting. New members are being added to the roll at almost every meeting. There is, and has been for some time, a demand for larger and better accommodations, and now through the kindness of the Commercial Club and by faithful energetic work of the Musicales this "dream" will soon be a reality.

A SLEIGH RIDE

Altho' last night was one of the coldest nights we have had this winter, the sleighing party that suddenly sprang into life at the first appearance of snow, was not to be daunted by such a trifle, so started from the residence of Mr. U. G. Couch of Island City and drove out to Mr. and Mrs. Spences' country home. The crowd was full of life and animation, but the drive was not altogether uneventful, for soon it became evident that something was wrong, then Mr. Willard Moss, the driver, announced "I don't know where we are at." Imagine their plight! But fears were put away by gayly singing:

"We won't go home 'till morning
 'Till daylight does appear,
 For Willard Moss is the driver,
 And he don't know how to steer."

Then after many a "gee" and "haw" Mr. Spences' cozy residence was a welcome sight and soon the genial occupants were welcoming and "thawing out" their guests.

A few hours were spent merrily, and then luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake, coffee and nuts, brought by the intruders, was eaten with relish. Those forming the party were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Bidwell, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Couch, Elsa and Ray Couch, Miss Elva Gaskill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kiddle, Leta and Fred Kiddle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Moss, Guy Moss, Mrs. B. Thomas and Miss Kathleen.

On Friday evening, Mrs. L. D. Reavis, Miss Porter, Mrs. C. H. Crawford and Mrs. F. E. Moore will entertain the evening Kaffee Klatch at the home of the latter.

SHALL WE HAVE IT?

People have been greatly pleased with the popular course in Central Church. If we secure a like course for next fall and winter we must say so in time. Fine talent can now be secured. Already Boise, Spokane and other nearby cities have booked their attractions. La Grande has the people and the taste to support a high grade course each year and it should be a regular thing. Tomorrow evening the Butterworth Company closes the course for this season.

BORN

SNIDER—In this city on March 14, 1906 to Mr. and Mrs. M. Snider, a nine and half pound daughter.

PRUNING TOOLS

Now is the time to prune your orchard. If you need any new pruning shears, saw or knives, call and examine my complete line of such goods, you will find just what you want. Also see my assortment of fine China in hand painted, decorated and plain, any kind you want. Do not forget about my cut glass and silverware.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY

Hardware and crockery.

J. A. Burleigh, a prominent attorney of Enterprise is registered at the Foley.

J. F. Nibley, of Perry, who is largely interested in several saw mills in this county is in the city today.

The clerk of the weather has at last taken a tumble to himself, and has retired old Boreas to his proper region, and has induced old Sol to give us some of his brightest smiles, and today is very pleasant.

Word reached this city last evening to the effect that Mrs. Fred Jacobs, who recently submitted to a surgical operation at Portland, is in a very critical condition, and that there is very little hope of her recovery.

Thomas Brasher, who for the past eight years has been a member of the council of our sister city, Union, was in La Grande yesterday. Mr. Brasher is expected to leave for Mexico soon where he is interested in the sugar business lately inaugurated in that estate, as are a number of other citizens of this valley.

John and Roy Jones drove over from Cove today, and report ten inches of snow there, also this morning the thermometer showed one below zero. They also report no damages to either cereals or fruits and the orchardists and farmers are jubilant over the very flattering prospects of an abundant harvest.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN TRUSTS AND TRUST COMPANIES

By an unfortunate similarity in their names, there is found occasionally to exist in the public mind a confusion—which is fortunately disappearing fast—between a "Trust" and a "Trust Company".

The difference between them is just as great as between a bank of snow and a bank of deposit and discount, that is to say, the similarity is in name alone and in nothing else.

A "Trust" is a consolidation of business concerns of the same kind in order to reduce competition, manipulate prices and secure economy in management.

The enemies of trusts rightly claim that they are in restraint of trade and great pains have been taken to prove them illegal. On the other hand no one has ever tried to prove that a Trust Company is illegal, on the contrary, during the past twenty years, it has been the aim of various state legislatures in this country to enlarge the powers of trust companies and to strengthen them in every way.

A Trust Company would be more correctly defined as a trustee company because that is precisely what it is—empowered also to do a general banking and financial business.

A FAVORITE PLACE

with those who know what good living means is

THE MODEL RESTAURANT

There are all the little accessories that help to make a meal enjoyable—a well set table, comfortable seats, plenty of room, courteous waiters, and efficient service.

The chief attraction, however, is the excellent food and fine cooking. Prices are very satisfactory, too.
