PLEASED AUDIENCE

The Harry T. Butterworth Company greatly pleased the large audience in Central Church last evening. The members of the party make up a happy combination, and the variety in the program, ranging from heavy to light, with nothing trashy, holds an audience throughout the evening. Many favorable comments have been heard. Mr. Davis again furnished the piano.

MARRIED

Dr. R. J. Ruckman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ruckman, of Alicel, was married in Walla Walla Sunday, to Mrs. Ida Staley of Milton, where the doctor is practicing dentistry.

THE POPULAR COURSE

The interest and help of the many who have made the course a success is greatly appreciated.

That the course has been popular is attested by the desire upon the part of so many, that we have a similar course next year. A few words as to our plans for the coming season.

By arranging early we can have a larger list of talent from which to select. I cannot contract for hundrede of dollars worth of attractions unless I know the people will patronize the course. Subscription tickets have been printed and those who wish to help push the course should go to Selder's store and fill out the blanks. Tickets will be delivered about Sept 15.

We promise five attractions and our course will cost probably $50 to $150 more than this season.

The house will be replatted to avoid crowding. We can accommodate 400 people and should be able to sell that many season tickets. Tickets for course $2.00 school tickets $1.00.

Subscribe now, get tickets and pay in September. First attraction about Oct. 20 to Nov. 1. Yours Truly O. H. KING
